Life Style Fund

Explanatory Memorandum

Important Notes:

- (a) Principal Life Style Fund consists of sub-funds (the “Sub-Funds”) investing in equities and/or debt securities located in developed markets or in emerging markets.
- (b) Generally, emerging market investments carry higher risks due to risks associated with higher volatility, inadequate liquidity and additional regulatory risks.
- (c) Some of the Sub-Funds may carry significant risks arising from credit, counterparty and liquidity issues through investment in debt securities. Investors may suffer significant loss in the value of their investment in the Sub-Funds when portfolio holdings fall below investment grade or when counterparties default on their obligations.
- (d) Some of the Sub-Funds may have concentrated exposures in one or a select few markets making them riskier than diversified funds.
- (e) The Sub-Funds may enter into in financial futures contracts, financial option contracts and currency forward contracts for hedging purposes which may involve additional risks including market, counterparty or default risks, exposing the Sub-Funds to losses.

14. Pages 12 - 16 of the Explanatory Memorandum – the section headed “Risk Factors” shall be amended as follows:

- (i) the sub-section titled “Risks associated with investment in China A-Shares through stock connect programmes” shall be re-titled as “Risks associated with investment in China A-Shares through Stock Connect programmes” and “(a) Legal and regulatory risk” and “(b) Trading risks” thereunder shall be deleted in their entirety and replaced by the following:

“(a) Legal and regulatory risk — Some of the Sub-Funds may invest in China A-Shares through Stock Connect programmes which aim to achieve mutual stock market access between Mainland China and Hong Kong such as Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect.

Stock Connect programmes are novel in nature, the relevant laws and regulations in Mainland China can be uncertain and subject to change, which may have potential retrospective effect. In addition, there is a potential for the People’s Republic of China government and/or the regulators to implement policies that may affect the financial markets may have adverse impact on the relevant Sub-Funds.

Mainland China regulations also impose certain restrictions on selling and buying. As such, the relevant Sub-Funds may not be able to dispose of the holdings of China A-Shares in a timely manner.

- (b) Trading risks — Trading in China A-Shares through Stock Connect programmes is subject to quota limitations, operational risks, risks arising from differences in trading days and restrictions on selling imposed by front-end monitoring and recalling of eligible stocks.

The Stock Connect programmes are subject to a daily quota limit, which does not belong to any Sub-Fund and can only be utilized on a first-come-first-serve basis. Quota limitations may restrict the ability of the relevant Sub-Funds to invest in China A-Shares through the Stock Connect programmes on a timely basis and as a result, the ability of the relevant Sub-Funds to access the China A-Shares market (and therefore to pursue its investment strategy) will be adversely affected.

Securities exchanges in Mainland China typically have the right to suspend or limit trading in any security traded on the relevant exchange. Where a suspension in the trading through a programme is effected, the relevant Sub-Fund’s ability to invest in China A-shares or access Mainland China market through such programmes will be adversely affected. In such events, a the relevant Sub-Fund’s ability to achieve its investment objective could be negatively affected, which may adversely affect the net asset value of the relevant Sub-Fund and investors may as a result suffer loss.

A stock may be recalled from the scope of eligible stocks for trading via the Stock Connect. This may adversely affect the investment portfolio or strategies of the relevant Sub-Funds, for example, when the investment manager wishes to purchase a stock which is recalled from the scope of eligible stocks.

Due to the differences in trading days, the relevant Sub-Funds may be subject to a risk of price fluctuations in China A-Shares on a day that the Mainland China market is open for trading but the Hong Kong market is closed. High market volatility and potential settlement difficulties in the Mainland China markets may also result in significant fluctuations in the prices of the securities traded on such markets. All these may have a negative impact on the net asset value of the relevant Sub-Funds.”

- (ii) the following sub-sections shall be added immediately after the sub-section titled “Risk associated with investment in China A-Shares through stock connect programmes”:

“Specific risks associated with investment in ChiNext market and/or STAR Board

Certain Sub-Funds may invest in ChiNext market and/or the STAR Board and may be subject to the following risks:

- (a) Higher fluctuation on stock prices and liquidity risk – Listed companies on ChiNext market and/or STAR Board are usually of emerging nature with smaller operating scale. Listed companies on ChiNext market and STAR Board are subject to wider price fluctuation limits, and due to higher entry thresholds for investors may have limited liquidity, compared to other boards. Hence, companies listed on these boards are subject to higher fluctuation in stock prices and liquidity risks and have higher risks and turnover ratios than companies listed on the main boards.
- (b) Over-valuation risk – Stocks listed on ChiNext and/or STAR Board may be overvalued and such exceptionally high valuation may not be sustainable. Stock price may be more susceptible to manipulation due to fewer circulating shares.
- (c) Differences in regulation – The rules and regulations regarding companies listed on the ChiNext market and STAR Board are less stringent in terms of profitability and share capital than those in the main boards.
- (d) Delisting risk – It may be more common and faster for companies listed on ChiNext market and/or STAR Board to delist. ChiNext market and STAR Board have stricter criteria for delisting compared to the main boards. This may have an adverse impact on the relevant Sub-Fund if the companies that it invests in are delisted.
- (e) Concentration risk (Applicable to STAR Board) – STAR Board is a newly established board and may have a limited number of listed companies during the initial stage. Investments in STAR Board may be concentrated in a small number of stocks and subject the relevant Sub-Fund to higher concentration risk.

Investments in the ChiNext market and/or STAR Board may result in significant losses for the relevant Sub-Fund and its investors.

Risks associated with investment made through the QFI regime

Investment made through the QFI regime is subject to the applicable laws, rules and regulations (including restrictions on investments and repatriation of principal and profits) in Mainland China, which are subject to change and such change may have potential retrospective effect.

The relevant Sub-Funds may suffer substantial losses if the approval of the QFI status is being revoked/terminated or otherwise invalidated as the Sub-Funds may be prohibited from trading of relevant securities and repatriation of the Sub-Funds' monies, or if any of the key operators or parties (including QFI custodian/brokers) is bankrupt/in default and/or is disqualified from performing its obligations (including execution or settlement of any transaction or transfer of monies or securities).

Risks of investing in debt instruments with loss-absorption features

Debt instruments with loss-absorption features are subject to greater risks when compared to traditional debt instruments as such instruments are typically subject to the risk of being written down or converted to ordinary shares upon the occurrence of a pre-defined trigger event(s) (e.g. when the issuer is near or at the point of non-viability or when the issuer's capital ratio falls to a specified level), which are likely to be outside of the issuer's control. Such trigger events are complex and difficult to predict and may result in a significant or total reduction in the value of such instruments.

In the event of the activation of a trigger, there may be potential price contagion and volatility to the entire asset class. Debt instruments with loss-absorption features may also be exposed to liquidity, valuation and sector concentration risk.

Contingent convertible debt securities, commonly known as CoCos, are highly complex and are of high risk. Upon the occurrence of the trigger event, CoCos may be converted into shares of the issuer (potentially at a discounted price), or may be subject to the permanent write-down to zero. Coupon payments on CoCos are discretionary and may be cancelled by the issuer at any point, for any reason, and for any length of time.

While senior non-preferred debts are generally senior to subordinated debts, they may be subject to write-down upon the occurrence of a trigger event and will no longer fall under the creditor ranking hierarchy of the issuer. This may result in total loss of principal invested."

16. Page 25 of the Explanatory Memorandum – the second and third paragraphs in the sub-section titled “Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value” under the section headed “Calculation of Net Asset Value and Issue and Redemption Prices” shall be deleted in their entirety and replaced by the following:

“Whenever the Manager declares such a suspension it shall, immediately after any such declaration, publish a notice on the website www.principal.com.hk¹ and/or cause a notice to be given to Unitholders and to all those (whether Unitholders or not) whose applications to subscribe for or redeem Units shall have been affected by such suspension stating that such declaration has been made. In the case of a prolonged suspension, notice(s) will be published and/or prominent message(s) will be displayed on the website www.principal.com.hk¹ or in such other appropriate manner at least once a month during the period of such suspension. The Manager will regularly review any such prolonged suspension and take all necessary steps to resume normal operations as soon as practicable.

Subject to the approval of the MPF Authority and the SFC, the Manager may change the valuation and pricing methodology as provided in the above by giving a three month prior notice (or such other shorter notice as the SFC may approve) to the Unitholders. However, as at the date of this Explanatory Memorandum, there is no circumstance within the contemplation of the Manager which may give rise to a change in the valuation or pricing methodology.”

17. Page 30 of the Explanatory Memorandum – the sub-section titled “Hong Kong” under the section headed “Taxation” shall be amended as follows:

- (i) the paragraph under the sub-heading “1. Profit Tax” under the heading “The Fund/Sub-Funds” shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

“As the Fund/Sub-Funds have been authorised, as a collective investment scheme under Section 104 of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (“SFO”), profits of the Fund/Sub-Funds are exempt from Hong Kong Profits Tax under Section 26A(1A)(a)(i) of the Inland Revenue Ordinance (“IRO”).

The Inland Revenue (Amendment) (Taxation on Specified Foreign-Sourced Income) Ordinance 2022 came into operation from 1 January 2023. This is a new foreign-sourced income exemption (“FSIE”) regime for certain passive income introduced in order to respond to the European Union’s concerns over risks of double non-taxation arising from the general FSIE regime in Hong Kong under the territorial source principle of taxation (i.e. only Hong Kong sourced profits would be subject to Hong Kong Profits Tax). The amendments were in line with the prevailing international tax standard of requiring adequate economic substance for preferential tax treatment.

The specified foreign-sourced passive income includes dividend, interest, equity disposal gains and income from intellectual properties arising in or derived from a territory outside Hong Kong (“Specified Offshore Passive Income”).

The Hong Kong government looked to expand the FSIE regime to also include other asset disposal gains in addition to equity interest disposal gains. The Inland Revenue (Amendment) (Taxation on Foreign-sourced Disposal Gains) Ordinance 2023 for implementing the expanded FSIE regime will be effective from 1 January 2024.

Even though the Fund/Sub-Funds fall within the definition of “MNE entity” under the new FSIE regime, their foreign-sourced profits from the investment activities can still qualify for tax exemption under section 26A(1A) (a)(i) of the IRO, being authorised as a collective investment scheme under section 104 of the SFO.

¹ This website has not been reviewed by the SFC.

In addition, the Hong Kong government introduced a new capital gains tax exemption for equity interests to enhance tax certainty in Hong Kong. Certain gains on disposal of shares and other equity interests are capital in nature and not taxable in Hong Kong, subject to satisfying specified conditions and exclusions. The Inland Revenue (Amendment) (Disposal Gain by Holder of Qualifying Equity Interests) Ordinance 2023 will take effect from 1 January 2024.”

- (ii) the paragraphs under the sub-heading “1. Profit Tax” under the heading “The Unitholders” shall be deleted in their entirety and replaced by the following:

“Unitholders should not be subject to Hong Kong Profits Tax in respect of income distributions of the Fund/Sub-Funds. In respect of any capital gains arising on a sale, realisation or other disposal of Units, they are excluded from Hong Kong Profits Tax. The Unitholders may refer to the new capital gains tax exemption as discussed above for the guidelines on non-taxation of onshore gains from disposal of equity interests. Except that, Hong Kong Profits Tax (which is currently charged at the rate of 16.5% for corporations, and 15% for individuals or unincorporated business, unless Two-Tier Profits Tax rates applies) may arise on any gains or profits sourced in Hong Kong made on the sale, realisation or other disposal of the Units where such transactions form part of a trade, profession or business carried on by a Unitholder in Hong Kong and such Units are not capital assets to the Unitholder. Under the two-tier profits tax rates system in Hong Kong, the profits tax rate for the first HK$2 million of assessable profits is lowered to 8.25% for corporations, and 7.5% for individuals or unincorporated business (i.e. half of the prevailing Hong Kong profits tax rates for corporations and individuals or unincorporated businesses respectively), subject to certain conditions being met.

For Specified Offshore Passive Income as mentioned above, they will continue to be exempt from tax if the applicable substance requirements under the new FSIE regime are satisfied. Unitholders should seek advice from their own professional advisers as to their particular tax position.

There is no withholding tax on dividends and interest in Hong Kong.”

- (iii) the second paragraph under the sub-heading “2. Stamp Duty” under the heading “The Unitholders” shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

“Other types of sales or purchases or transfers of the Units by the Unitholders should be liable to Hong Kong Stamp Duty at 0.1% (it was reduced from 0.13% starting from 17 November 2023) (borne by each of the buyer and seller) on the higher of the consideration amount or market value.”

18. Pages 31 - 33 of the Explanatory Memorandum – the sub-section titled “China” under the section headed “Taxation” shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

“People’s Republic of China (“PRC”)

By investing in China shares (including but not limited to China A-Shares and China B-Shares) directly via the Stock Connect or the QFI regime, and onshore and offshore RMB denominated debt securities issued by PRC tax resident enterprises (“PRC Securities”), a Sub-Fund may be subject to taxes imposed by the PRC.

Income (including interest income and capital gains) derived from the Sub-Fund’s investments in debt securities issued by non-PRC tax resident issuers outside the PRC should not be subject to PRC taxes.

1. Corporate Income Tax (“CIT”)

If the Fund or a Sub-Fund is considered as a PRC tax resident enterprise, it will be subject to PRC CIT at 25% on its worldwide taxable income; if the Fund or Sub-Fund is considered as a non-PRC tax resident enterprise with a permanent establishment or place of business (collectively referred to as “PE”) in the PRC, the profits and gains attributable to that PE would be subject to PRC CIT at 25%.

It is the intention of the Manager to manage and operate the affairs of the Manager, the Fund and each Sub-Fund such that they should not be treated as PRC tax resident enterprises or non-PRC tax resident enterprises with PE in the PRC for PRC CIT purposes, although this cannot be guaranteed. As such, it is expected that the Fund or Sub-Fund would only be subject to CIT at a rate of 10% on a withholding basis in the PRC to the extent the Fund or Sub-Fund directly derives PRC sourced income in respect of its investments in PRC Securities.

(a) Dividends, interest and profit distributions

Unless a specific exemption or reduction is available under current PRC tax laws and regulations or relevant tax treaties, non-PRC tax resident enterprises without PE in the PRC are subject to PRC CIT, generally at a rate of 10%, to the extent it directly derives PRC sourced passive income (such as dividend income or interest income) arising from investment in PRC Securities. In that respect, dividends, interests and profit distributions from PRC tax resident enterprises received by the Sub-Fund is generally subject to PRC CIT at a rate of 10%, unless such CIT is subject to reduction or exemption in accordance with the laws and regulations or applicable tax treaty.

Pursuant to the “Notice about the tax policies related to the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect” (Caishui [2014] No. 81) (“Notice No. 81”) promulgated by the Ministry of Finance of the PRC (“MOF”), the State Taxation Administration of the PRC (“STA”) and the China Securities Regulatory Commission (“CSRC”) on 31 October 2014, the Fund or Sub-Fund is subject to CIT at 10% on dividends received from China A-Shares traded via Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, unless reduced under a double tax treaty with the PRC upon application to and obtaining approval from the competent PRC authority.

Pursuant to the “Notice about the tax policies related to the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect” (Caishui [2016] No. 127) (“Notice No. 127”) promulgated by the MOF, the STA and the CSRC on 5 November 2016, the Fund or Sub-Funds are subject to PRC CIT at 10% on dividends received from China A-Shares traded via Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect, unless reduced under a double tax treaty with the PRC upon application to and obtaining approval from the competent PRC authority.

In respect of interest, under the PRC CIT Law and regulations, interest derived from government bonds issued by the in-charge Finance Bureau of the State Council and/or local government bonds approved by the State Council is exempt from PRC income tax. In addition, Caishui [2018] No.108 (“Notice No.108”) deals with the PRC taxation rules in relation to foreign institutional investors investing into PRC onshore bond market. Under Notice No.108, CIT is temporarily exempted on bond interest income arising in the period from 7 November 2018 to 6 November 2021 derived by foreign institutional investors without any taxable presence in the PRC. Subsequently, the exemption policy has been extended from 7 November 2021 up to 31 December 2025 pursuant to Circular [2021] No.34 (“Notice No.34”) jointly issued by the MOF and STA.

Further, under the Arrangement between the PRC and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income (the “PRC-HK Arrangement”), the PRC CIT charged on interest received by Hong Kong resident holders of debt instruments issued by PRC tax resident enterprises would be reduced to 7% of the gross amount of the interest, if the Hong Kong tax resident holders are the beneficial owners of the interest under the PRC-HK Arrangement and other relevant conditions are satisfied, subject to the agreement of the PRC tax authorities. In practice, due to the practical difficulties in demonstrating that an investment fund is the beneficial owner of the interest received, such investment fund is generally not entitled to the reduced PRC CIT rate of 7%. As such, the prevailing rate of 10% would likely be applicable to the Sub-Fund.

In respect of dividends, pursuant to the PRC-HK Arrangement, the PRC CIT charged on dividends received by Hong Kong tax resident holders of shares issued by PRC tax resident enterprises would be reduced to 5% of the gross amount of the dividends, if the Hong Kong tax resident holders are the beneficial owners of the dividends, directly hold at least 25% of the equity of the company paying the dividends and meet other relevant tax treaty conditions. Due to the investment restriction, the relevant Sub-Fund would not hold more than 10% of any ordinary shares issued by any single issuer. In this connection, dividends derived from China A-Shares will not benefit from the reduced PRC CIT rate of 5% and the prevailing PRC CIT tax rate of 10% is applicable to the relevant Sub-Fund.

The Manager will make a PRC CIT provision of 10% for the account of the relevant Sub-Fund on dividends and interest if the PRC CIT is not withheld at source.

(b) Capital gains

For a foreign enterprise that is not a PRC tax resident enterprise and has no PE in the PRC, a 10% PRC CIT would be imposed on the PRC-sourced capital gains derived by it, unless exempt or reduced under the laws and regulations or relevant tax treaty entered into by the PRC.

i) Trading of China A-Shares via Stock Connect

Notice No.81 deals with the PRC taxation rules in relation to Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect. Under Notice No.81, CIT, Business Tax (replaced by Value Added Tax, “VAT”), and individual income tax are temporarily exempted on gains realised by Hong Kong market investors (including the relevant Sub-Fund) on the trading of China A-shares through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect.

Notice No.127 deals with the PRC taxation rules in relation to Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect. Under Notice No.127, CIT, VAT and individual income tax are temporarily exempted on gains realised by Hong Kong market investors (including the relevant Sub-Fund) on the trading of China A-shares through Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect. At the time when Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect was launched, Business Tax had already been fully replaced by VAT.

ii) Trading of China B-shares via Stock Connect

Under current PRC tax laws and regulations, there are no specific rules or regulations governing the taxation of a gain on disposal of China B-shares. Hence, the tax treatment for investment in China B-Shares is governed by the general tax provisions of the CIT Law. Under such general tax provisions, the relevant Sub-Fund could be technically subject to 10% PRC CIT on the PRC sourced capital gains, unless exempt or reduced under applicable tax treaties.

However, for China B-Shares invested by the relevant Sub-Fund directly, there may be practical difficulty for the PRC tax authorities to impose and collect PRC CIT on such capital gains. The 10% PRC CIT has not been strictly enforced by local tax bureau on capital gains realised by non-PRC tax resident enterprises from the trading of China B-shares with sales and purchase effected through stock exchanges.

iii) Trading of China shares via the QFI regime

Caishui [2014] No.79 (“Notice No.79”) deals with the PRC taxation rules in relation to the QFI regime. Under Notice No.79, starting from 17 November 2014, CIT is exempted on gains realised by QFI (including the relevant Sub-Fund) on the trading of China shares.

iv) Trading of onshore and offshore RMB denominated debt securities issued by PRC tax resident enterprise

Under current PRC tax law, there are no specific rules or regulations governing the taxation of gain on disposal of debt securities issued by PRC tax resident enterprises. Under the general tax provision, the relevant Sub-Fund would potentially be subject to 10% PRC CIT on the PRC-sourced capital gains, unless exempt or reduced under applicable tax treaties.

Based on the verbal interpretation of the STA and the local PRC tax authorities, capital gains realised by foreign investors from investment in PRC debt securities issued by PRC tax resident enterprises should not be treated as PRC sourced income and thus should not be subject to PRC CIT. There are no specific written tax regulations issued by the PRC tax authorities to confirm that gains on disposal of PRC debt securities are non-PRC sourced and hence not subject to PRC CIT. However, in practice, the PRC tax authorities have not actively enforced the collection of PRC CIT in respect of gains derived by non-PRC tax resident enterprises from the trading of debt securities.

v) Tax Provision

It should be noted that the existing tax laws, regulations and practices may be revised or amended in the future, with the possibility that such changes will be applied with retrospective effect. In order to meet the potential tax liability for capital gains, the Manager reserves the right to provide for PRC CIT on such gains or income and withhold the tax for the account of the relevant Sub-Fund. However, having consulted a professional and independent tax adviser, pursuant to Notice No.79, Notice No.81 and Notice No.127 and the aforementioned practical enforcement of tax collection, the Manager has determined not to make PRC CIT provision for gross realised or unrealised capital gains derived by the relevant Sub-Fund from trading of PRC Securities.

If a Sub-Fund is subject to tax in respect of which the Manager has not made any provision, investors should note that the net asset value of the Sub-Fund may be reduced, as the Sub-Fund will ultimately have to bear the full amount of tax liabilities. In this case, the additional tax liabilities will only impact Units in issue at the relevant time, and the then existing Unitholders and subsequent Unitholders will be disadvantaged as such Unitholders will bear, through the Sub-Fund, a disproportionately higher amount of tax liabilities as compared to that borne by persons who have already redeemed their Units in the Sub-Fund. On the other hand, if the actual tax liabilities are lower than the tax provision made (if any), Unitholders who have already redeemed their Units before the actual tax liabilities are determined will not be entitled or have any right to claim any part of such overprovision and as such may be disadvantaged.

2. Value Added Tax (“VAT”)

(a) Interest

Caishui [2016] No.36 (“Notice No.36”) deals with the PRC taxation rules on VAT.

Notice No.36 does not specifically exempt VAT on interest earned by non-financial institutions. However, under Notice No.36, interest on government bonds is exempt from VAT. In addition, Notice No.108 temporarily exempts VAT on bond interest income arising in the period from 7 November 2018 to 6 November 2021 (extended to 31 December 2025 pursuant to Notice No.34) derived by foreign investors without any taxable presence in the PRC.

(b) Dividends and profit distributions

Dividend income or profit distributions on equity investments derived from the PRC are not included in the taxable scope of VAT.

(c) Capital gains

Notice No.36 stipulates that gains derived by taxpayers from the trading of marketable securities would be subject to VAT at 6%. It also stipulates that VAT is temporarily exempt on capital gains derived by Hong Kong market investors (including the Sub-Funds) on the trading of China A-Shares through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect.

Under Notice No.127, VAT is temporarily exempt on capital gains derived by Hong Kong market investors (including the Sub-Funds) on the trading of China A-Shares through Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect.

For marketable securities other than those trading through the QFI regime or Stock Connect, Notice No.36 provides that VAT at 6% should be levied on the difference between the selling and buying prices of those marketable securities. However, for China B-Shares invested by the Sub-Funds directly and traded on the stock exchange, there may be practical difficulty for the PRC tax authorities to impose and collect PRC VAT on such capital gains. The 6% VAT has not been strictly enforced by local tax bureau on capital gains realised by non-PRC tax resident enterprises from the trading of China B-Shares with sales and purchase effected through stock exchanges. Moreover, capital gains derived from trading of offshore marketable securities (e.g. China H-shares) in general are regarded as not subject to VAT as the purchase and disposal are often concluded and completed outside the PRC.

Where VAT is applicable, there are also other surtaxes (which include Urban Construction and Maintenance Tax, Education Surcharge and Local Education Surcharge) that would amount to as high as a sum of 12% of the 6% VAT payable (or an additional 0.72%).

3. Stamp duty

PRC stamp duty generally applies to the execution and receipt of all taxable documents listed in PRC Stamp Duty Law, effective from 1 July 2022. Stamp duty is levied on the execution or receipt in the PRC of certain documents, including contracts for the sale of China A-Shares and China B-Shares traded on the PRC stock exchanges, at the rate of 0.1%. In the case of contracts for sale of China A-Shares and China B-Shares, such stamp duty is currently imposed on the seller but not on the purchaser. Effective from 28 August 2023, PRC stamp duty rate is reduced from 0.1% to 0.05%.

4. General

It is possible that the current tax laws, regulations and practice in the PRC will change, including the possibility of taxes being applied retrospectively, and that such changes may result in higher taxation on PRC investments than currently contemplated.

Various tax reform policies have been implemented by the PRC government in recent years, and existing tax laws and regulations may be revised or amended in the future. There is a possibility that the current tax laws, regulations and practice in the PRC will be changed with retrospective effect in the future and any such change may have an adverse effect on the asset value of the relevant Sub-Fund. Moreover, there is no assurance that tax incentives currently offered to foreign companies, if any, will not be abolished and the existing tax laws and regulations will not be revised or amended in the future. Any changes in tax policies may reduce the after-tax profits of the companies in the PRC which a Sub-Fund invests in, thereby reducing the income from, and/or value of the Units. For further details relating to the associated risks, please refer to the risk factor headed “PRC tax risk with respect to capital gains” under the “Risk Factors” section.

Unitholders should seek independent professional advice on their positions with regard to the investment in any Sub-Fund.”

Queries

If you have any questions or concerns about the Changes set out in this Notice, please contact our customer service hotline at (852) 2117 8383.

1. Investment objective and policy of Principal Asian Equity Fund – Expansion of geographical focus

Currently, the investment objective of the Principal Asian Equity Fund is to seek capital growth over the long term by investing in Asian equity markets and the Principal Asian Equity Fund will invest primarily in equity securities of companies in the Asian region. With effect from the Effective Date, the investment objective and policy of the Principal Asian Equity Fund will be updated to reflect the expansion of its geographical focus from “Asia (ex-Japan)” to “Asia Pacific (ex-Japan)”. Consequently, the investment objective of the Principal Asian Equity Fund will be amended as follows:

“The investment objective of the Principal Asian Equity Fund is to seek capital growth over the long term by investing primarily in Asia Pacific (ex-Japan) equities ~~Asian equity markets~~.”

The Manager believes that expanding the Principal Asian Equity Fund's investment universe to some of the largest markets in the Asia Pacific (ex-Japan) region, such as Australia and New Zealand, may allow the Sub-Fund to gain exposure to such markets and diversify its investments and achieve better performance outcomes for the Sub-Fund.

2. Investment policy of Principal China Equity Fund – Update to investment limit on China A-Shares and B-Shares

Currently, the Principal China Equity Fund will invest less than 30% of its net asset value in eligible China A-Shares and B-Shares listed on the Shanghai and Shenzhen stock exchanges. As weighting of China A-Shares in benchmark indexes formulated by international index providers continue to increase, in order to provide for flexibility in portfolio management and tap into the opportunities of investment in Mainland China, the investment policy of the Principal China Equity Fund will be amended with effect from the Effective Date such that the Sub-Fund may invest less than 70% of its net asset value in eligible China A-Shares and B-Shares listed on the Shanghai and Shenzhen stock exchanges (including the ChiNext market and the STAR Board).

As a result, the Principal China Equity Fund may be subject to increased “risks associated with investments/exposure to RMB currency and/or Mainland China” and “risks associated with investment in China A-Shares through Stock Connect programmes”, as currently set out in the Explanatory Memorandum. In addition, the Principal China Equity Fund may be subject to “specific risks associated with investment in ChiNext market and/or STAR Board”. The risk disclosures in the Explanatory Memorandum will be enhanced to include the “specific risks associated with investment in ChiNext market and/or STAR Board”.

3. Investment policies of Principal China Equity Fund, Principal Asian Equity Fund and Principal Hong Kong Equity Fund (collectively the “Relevant Equity Sub-Funds”) – Investment through the QFI regime

In order to expand the scope and means of investment in Mainland China, the Manager intends to utilise the QFI regime in addition to the Stock Connect in respect of the Relevant Equity Sub-Funds. With effect from the Effective Date, the respective investment policies of the Relevant Equity Sub-Funds will be amended to provide that the Relevant Equity Sub-Funds may invest in eligible China A-Shares and B-Shares listed on Shanghai and Shenzhen stock exchanges via the Stock Connect and/or the QFI regime.

For the avoidance of doubt, the investment limit on China A-Shares and B-Shares for the Principal Asian Equity Fund and Principal Hong Kong Equity Fund will remain the same at less than 30% of the Sub-Fund's net asset value, whilst the investment limit on China A-Shares and B-Shares for the Principal China Equity Fund will be updated as set out in Section 2 above.

Consequently, as the Relevant Equity Sub-Funds may invest via the QFI regime, they may be subject to “risks associated with investment made through the QFI regime”. The risk disclosures in the Explanatory Memorandum will be enhanced to include the “risks associated with investment made through the QFI regime”.

4. Investment policies of Principal International Bond Fund, Principal Hong Kong Dollar Savings Fund, Principal Pension Bond Fund, Principal Hong Kong Bond Fund and Principal Asian Bond Fund² (collectively the “Relevant Sub-Funds”) – Enhancement on investment in LAP

With effect from the Effective Date, the investment policies of the Relevant Sub-Funds will be enhanced to disclose that each of the Relevant Sub-Funds may invest less than 30% of its net asset value in LAP, which may include instruments classified as Additional Tier 1/Tier 2 capital instruments, contingent convertible bonds, non-preferred senior bonds which may also be known as Tier 3 bonds and other instruments eligible to count as loss-absorbing capacity under the resolution regime for financial institution.

LAP may be subject to contingent write-down or contingent conversion to equity on the occurrence of trigger event(s). The Relevant Sub-Funds may be subject to “risks of investing in debt instruments with loss-absorption features”.

For the avoidance of doubt, the update is for enhancement of disclosures only and there is no actual change to the current practice of the Relevant Sub-Funds.

5. Investment policy of Principal Hong Kong Bond Fund – Use of financial derivative instruments for hedging purposes

Currently, the Principal Hong Kong Bond Fund will not enter into any financial derivative instruments, including financial futures contracts or any financial option contracts. In order to provide flexibility to the Manager to use financial derivative instruments for hedging purposes, the investment policy of the Principal Hong Kong Bond Fund will be updated such that it may enter into financial futures contracts, financial option contracts and currency forward contracts for hedging purposes. The net derivative exposure of the Principal Hong Kong Bond Fund will be up to 50% of its net asset value.

6. Other miscellaneous or administrative updates

Apart from the Changes set out in Sections 1 – 5 above, the Explanatory Memorandum and the Trust Deed will be amended to streamline notification arrangements in the case of a prolonged suspension of the calculation of net asset value of a Sub-Fund, notice(s) will be published and/or prominent message(s) will be displayed on our website at www.principal.com.hk³ or in such other appropriate manner at least once a month during the period of such suspension.

In addition, the Explanatory Memorandum will be amended to reflect that no separate notification will be sent to Unitholders upon the publication of audited annual reports and half-yearly unaudited interim reports, but these financial reports will continue to be made available to investors by the means and within the timeframe as currently disclosed in the Explanatory Memorandum.

² The Principal Asian Bond Fund is not authorised by the SFC under the UTMF Code and therefore cannot be offered to and is not available for investment by the retail public in Hong Kong. This Sub-Fund is only available for investment by trustees of retirement schemes registered under the MPFS Ordinance, certain institutional or professional investors and accounts managed by the Manager or its associates.

³ This website has not been reviewed by the SFC.

Other amendments will also be made to the Explanatory Memorandum, including but not limited to:-

- (i) Administrative updates to the address and biography of the Manager;
- (ii) General updates and enhancement of risk disclosures in the section headed “Risk Factors” in the Explanatory Memorandum;
- (iii) General updates to Hong Kong tax disclosures in the sub-section titled “Hong Kong” under the section headed “Taxation” in the Explanatory Memorandum;
- (iv) Enhancement of PRC tax disclosures in the sub-section titled “China” under the section headed “Taxation” in the Explanatory Memorandum; and
- (v) Other editorial amendments and administrative updates.

7. Impact on the Fund and Unitholders

Save as disclosed above, there will be (i) no material change to the other features of the relevant Sub-Funds and the operation and/or manner in which the relevant Sub-Funds are being managed in practice; (ii) no increase in the overall risk profiles of the relevant Sub-Funds; (iii) no change in the fee levels and fees and charges structure of the Sub-Funds. Based on the above, the Manager is of the view that the Changes to the relevant Sub-Funds would not have any adverse impact on Unitholders’ rights or interests.

The fees and costs incurred in connection with the Changes will be borne by the Manager and will not be borne by the Sub-Funds or the Unitholders.

8. Actions required by Unitholders

No action is required of the Unitholders to effect the Changes.

However, in connection with the Changes set out in Sections 1 – 5 above, Unitholders of the relevant Sub-Fund(s) who do not wish to remain invested in the relevant Sub-Fund(s) after the Effective Date may by 5:00 p.m. on the business day immediately before the Effective Date (i) realise their investment in the relevant Sub-Fund(s) in accordance with the section titled “Redemption of Units” of the Explanatory Memorandum, and/or (ii) switch their existing investment in the relevant Sub-Fund(s) to other eligible Sub-Fund(s) under the Fund in accordance with the section titled “Switching between Sub-Funds” of the Explanatory Memorandum. Apart from the appointment of sub-delegates of the Manager as described above, there will not be any change to the current investment delegation arrangement of the Relevant Sub-Funds. The appointment will not result in any change to the investment objectives and policies of the Relevant Sub-Funds or any increase in risk level of the Relevant Sub-Funds. In this regard, the appointment will not result in any change in the manner in which the Relevant Sub-Funds currently operate or are being managed. Also, the fee levels and fees and charges structure of the Relevant Sub-Funds will remain unchanged. We are of the view that the appointment would be in the interest of the Unitholders and will not create any adverse impact on them. We also confirm that the rights and interests of Unitholders will not be prejudiced due to the appointment.

The costs of the appointment of sub-delegates of the Manager as described above will be borne by the Manager and will not be borne by the Relevant Sub-Funds or the Unitholders.

Investors should note that (i) the above ranges of asset and geographic allocations are for indication only and long-term allocations may vary with changing market conditions; and (ii) the geographic allocation for equity investments is classified by the principal place of business of the issuers and the geographic allocation for debt investments is classified by their currency denomination.*

Investors should note that (i) the above ranges of asset and geographic allocations are for indication only and long term allocations may vary with changing market conditions; and (ii) the geographic allocation for debt securities is classified by country of risk. "Country of risk" is based on a number of criteria, including, in respect of a security, its issuer's country of domicile, the primary stock exchange on which it trades, the location from which the majority of its issuer's revenue comes, and its issuer's reporting currency.*

The net asset value of the Sub-Funds may be affected unfavorably by fluctuations in the exchange rates between these currencies and the base currency and by changes in exchange rate controls.

Risk associated with equities

- (a) Equity market risk – The Sub-Funds' investment in equity securities is subject to general market risks, whose value may fluctuate due to various factors, such as changes in investment sentiment, political and economic conditions and issuer-specific factors, which may affect the net asset value of the Sub-Funds.
- (b) Risks associated with small-capitalisation/mid-capitalisation companies – The stock of small capitalisation/mid-capitalisation companies may have lower liquidity and their prices are more volatile to adverse economic developments than those of larger capitalisation companies in general. The net asset value of the Sub-Funds investing in such companies may therefore be adversely affected and investors may suffer loss.
- (c) Risks associated with high volatility of the equity market in certain countries and regions – High market volatility and potential settlement difficulties in these markets may result in significant fluctuations in the prices of the securities traded on such markets and thereby may adversely affect the net asset value of the Sub-Funds trading in these markets.
- (d) Risks associated with regulatory or exchanges requirements of the equity market in certain countries and regions – Securities exchanges in certain countries and regions may have the right to suspend or limit trading in any security traded on the relevant exchange. The government or the regulators may also implement policies that may affect the financial markets. All these may have a negative impact on the Sub-Funds investing in such regions.

Risk associated with debt securities

- (a) Credit/Counterparty risks – The Sub-Funds may be exposed to credit and counterparty risk of issuers of the debt securities that the Sub-Funds may invest in. If the issuer of debt securities in which the Sub-Funds invested in defaults or suffers insolvency, such securities may become worthless and the performance of the Sub-Funds will be adversely affected. Further, investments in debt securities which involve a counterparty are subject to the credit risk or default risk of the counterparty. This may adversely affect the net asset value of the Sub-Funds and investors may as a result suffer loss.
- (b) Interest rate risk – Interest rate movements have an impact on the valuation of debt securities and hence, the net asset value of a Sub-Fund. In general, the prices of debt securities rise when interest rates fall, whilst their prices fall when interest rates rise.
- (c) Volatility and liquidity risks – Debt securities in less developed markets may be subject to higher volatility and lower liquidity. The prices of debt securities traded in such markets may be subject to fluctuations. The bid and offer spreads of the price of such securities may be large and the Sub-Funds investing in such markets may incur significant trading costs.
- (d) Downgrading risks – The credit rating of a debt securities or its issuer may subsequently be downgraded. In the event of such downgrading, the value of the Sub-Funds may be adversely affected. The Manager may not be able to dispose of the debt securities that are being downgraded.

- (e) Risk associated with debt securities rated below investment grade or unrated – Some of the Sub-Funds may invest in debt securities rated below investment grade (as determined by credit rating agency(ies) approved by the MPF Authority) or unrated, as may be allowed under the MPF Regulation. Such securities are generally subject to lower liquidity, higher volatility and greater risk of loss of principal and interest than high-rated debt securities, which may adversely impact the returns of the securities and in turn the net asset value of the Sub-Funds.
- (f) Sovereign debt risks – If the Sub-Funds invest in debt securities issued or guaranteed by governments they may be exposed to political, social and economic risks. In adverse situations, the sovereign issuers may not be able or willing to repay the principal and/or interest when due or may request the Sub-Funds to participate in the restructuring of such debts. The Sub-Funds may suffer significant losses when there is a default of sovereign debt issuers.
- (g) Valuation risks – Valuation of a Sub-Fund’s investments may involve uncertainties and judgmental determinations. If such valuation turns out to be incorrect, this may affect the net asset value of the Sub-Fund and investors may as a result suffer loss.
- (h) Credit rating risk – Credit ratings assigned by rating agencies are subject to limitations and do not guarantee the creditworthiness of the security and/or issuer at all times.

Risks associated with specific investment strategy

- (a) Concentration risk – Some of the Sub-Funds’ investments may be concentrated in specific geographic locations. The value of such Sub-Funds whose investments are consequently concentrated may be more volatile than Sub-Funds having a more diverse portfolio of investments. Additionally, the value of such Sub-Funds may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the single country or regional markets.
- (b) Eurozone risks – In light of ongoing concerns on the sovereign debt risk of certain countries within the Eurozone, Sub-Funds investing in the region may be subject to higher volatility, liquidity, currency and default risks. Any adverse events, such as a credit downgrade of a sovereign or exit of EU members from the Eurozone, may have a negative impact on the net asset value of the Sub-Funds and investors may as a result suffer loss.
- (c) Emerging market risks – Some of the Sub-Funds may invest in emerging markets which may involve increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in more developed markets, such as liquidity risks, currency risks, political and economic uncertainties, legal and taxation risks, settlement risks, custody risk and the likelihood of a high degree of volatility.

Risks associated with certain types of investments

- (a) Risks of investing in convertible bonds – Convertible bonds are a hybrid between debt and equity, permitting holders to convert into shares in the company issuing the bond at a specified future date. As such, convertible bonds will be exposed to equity movement and greater volatility than straight bond investments. Sub-Funds that invest in convertible bonds are subject to the same interest rate risk, credit risk and liquidity risk associated with straight bond investments.
- (b) Risks of investing in collective investment schemes – Sub-Funds that invest in collective investment schemes are subject to the risks associated with the underlying funds. Such Sub-Funds do not have control of the investments of the underlying funds and there is no assurance that the investment objective and strategy of the underlying funds will be successfully achieved, which may adversely affect the net asset value of the Sub-Funds and investors may as a result suffer loss. Further, the underlying collective investment schemes in which the Sub-Funds invest may not be regulated by the SFC. There may be additional costs involved when investing in these underlying collective investment schemes. There is also no guarantee that the underlying collective investment schemes will always have sufficient liquidity to meet redemption requests as and when made.

Risk associated with distributions out of/effectively out of the Sub-Fund’s capital

- (a) Payment of distributions out of capital and/or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor’s original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investments. Any such distributions may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per unit of the Sub-Fund and investors may as a result suffer loss.

Risks associated with investments/exposure to RMB currency and/or Mainland China

- (a) RMB currency and conversion risks – RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. Non-RMB based investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors’ base currencies (for example HKD) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of RMB could adversely affect the value of investor’s investment in the Sub-Fund.

Although offshore RMB (CNH) and onshore RMB (CNY) are the same currency, they trade at different rates. Any divergence between CNH and CNY may adversely impact investors.

Under exceptional circumstances, payment of redemptions and/or distribution payment in RMB may be delayed due to the exchange controls and restrictions applicable to RMB.

- (b) Country risk – The value of Sub-Funds whose investment are concentrated in Mainland China may be more volatile than Sub-Funds having a more diverse portfolio of investments. Additionally, the value of such Sub-Funds may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting Mainland China.
- (c) PRC tax risk with respect to capital gains – A Sub-Fund may be subject to the potential tax liability for capital gains arising from disposal of PRC securities (including A-Shares and debt instruments) issued by PRC tax resident enterprises. Having consulted a professional and independent tax adviser, the Manager currently does not make any capital gains tax provision on the gross unrealised and realised capital gains derived from trading of PRC securities by the Sub-Fund. However, the Manager reserves the right to make a provision for the potential capital gains tax in respect of investments in the PRC in the future.

There is possibility of the PRC tax rules, regulations and practice being changed and taxes being applied retrospectively. There is no assurance that current tax concessions and exemptions will not be abolished in the future. As such, there is a risk that the Sub-Fund may have tax liabilities which were not provided for, which may potentially cause substantial loss to the Sub-Fund. The Manager will closely monitor any further guidance by the relevant PRC tax authorities and adjust the tax provision policy of the Sub-Fund accordingly.

The actual applicable tax rate imposed or the actual amount of tax liability assessed by PRC tax authorities may differ from the capital gains tax provision made by the Manager and may change from time to time.

Investors should note that if the actual applicable tax rate or liability levied by the PRC tax authorities is more than the capital gains tax provision (if any) the net asset value of such Sub-Fund may decrease more than anticipated as the Sub-Fund will, directly or indirectly, have to bear the additional tax liabilities. In this case, the additional tax liabilities will only impact units in issue at the relevant time, and the then existing investors and subsequent investors will be disadvantaged as such investors will bear, through the Sub-Fund, a disproportionately higher amount of tax liabilities as compared to that borne at the time of investment in such Sub-Fund.

On the other hand, if the actual applicable tax rate or liability levied by the PRC tax authorities is less than the capital gains tax provision (if any) so that there is an excess in the tax provision amount, investors who have redeemed the units before the PRC tax authorities' ruling or guidance in this respect will be disadvantaged as they would have borne the loss from the overprovision and will not be entitled to or have any right to claim any part of such overprovision. In this case, the then existing and new investors may benefit if the difference between the capital gains tax provision and the actual applicable tax rate or liability can be returned to the account of the Sub-Fund as assets thereof. Investors will be advantaged or disadvantaged depending on the final tax liabilities, the level of capital gains tax provision and timing of their subscription or redemption.

Risk of investing in the China Interbank Bond Market (the "CIBM") and/or Bond Connect

Investing in China debt securities through the CIBM initiative/Bond Connect (the "Program") is subject to various risks such as regulatory changes, market volatility, insufficient liquidity, agency default and other risks applied to investment in debt securities. Investors and their investment could be negatively affected and suffer a loss.

The regulations or policies relating to the Program may change from time to time. There is no guarantee that the Program will not be restricted or ceased which adversely affect the relevant Sub-Fund's ability to achieve its investment objective.

Low trading volume in the CIBM may cause market volatility and insufficient liquidity. Prices of debt securities traded on this market may fluctuate significantly which may widen the bid and offer spreads. This may incur material trading and realization costs for the relevant Sub-Fund.

Foreign investors may invest in the Program through opening an account with onshore settlement agent, offshore custody agent, registration agent or other third parties as the case may be. Investors are therefore subject to the risk of default or errors on these agents.

Risks associated with investment in China A-Shares through stock connect programmes

- (a) Legal and regulatory risk – The Sub-Funds may invest in China A-Shares through stock connect securities trading and clearing linked programmes ("Stock Connect") which aim to achieve mutual stock market access between Mainland China and Hong Kong such as Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect.

Stock Connect programmes are novel in nature, the relevant laws and regulations in Mainland China can be uncertain and subject to change, which may have potential retrospective effect. In addition, there is a potential for the PRC government and/or the regulators to implement policies that may affect the financial markets may have adverse impact on the Sub-Funds.

Mainland China regulations also impose certain restrictions on selling and buying. As such, Sub-Funds may not be able to dispose of the holdings of China-A Shares in a timely manner.

- (b) Trading risks – Trading in China A-Shares through Stock Connect programmes is subject to quota limitations, operational risks, risks arising from differences in trading days and restrictions on selling imposed by front-end monitoring and recalling of eligible stocks. Investments through Stock Connect programmes are also not covered by Hong Kong’s Investor Compensation Fund.

The Stock Connect programmes are subject to a daily quota limit, which does not belong to any Sub-Fund and can only be utilized on a first-come-first-serve basis. Quota limitations may restrict the ability of the Sub-Funds to invest in China A-Shares through the Stock Connect programmes on a timely basis and as a result, the ability of the Sub-Funds to access the China A-Shares market (and therefore to pursue its investment strategy) will be adversely affected.

Securities exchanges in Mainland China typically have the right to suspend or limit trading in any security traded on the relevant exchange. Where a suspension in the trading through a programme is effected, the Sub-Fund’s ability to invest in China A-shares or access the PRC market through such programmes will be adversely affected. In such events, a Sub-Fund’s ability to achieve its investment objective could be negatively affected, which may adversely affect the net asset value of the Sub-Funds and investors may as a result suffer loss.

A stock may be recalled from the scope of eligible stocks for trading via the Stock Connect. This may adversely affect the investment portfolio or strategies of the Sub-Funds, for example, when the investment manager wishes to purchase a stock which is recalled from the scope of eligible stocks.

Due to the differences in trading days, the Sub-Funds may be subject to a risk of price fluctuations in China A-Shares on a day that the Mainland China market is open for trading but the Hong Kong market is closed. High market volatility and potential settlement difficulties in the mainland China markets may also result in significant fluctuations in the prices of the securities traded on such markets. All these may have a negative impact on the net asset value of the Sub-Fund.

Risks associated with financial derivative instruments

Certain Sub-Funds may utilize financial derivative instruments for the purposes of hedging. Financial derivative instruments include instruments and contracts the value of which is linked to one or more underlying securities, financial benchmarks or indices. Derivatives may allow an investor to hedge or speculate upon the price movements of a particular security, financial benchmark or index. Therefore, many of the risks applicable to trading the assets of the Sub-Fund may also be applicable to derivatives trading. However, there are a number of other risks associated with derivatives trading. For example, because many derivatives provide significantly more market exposure than the money paid or deposited when the transaction is entered into, a relatively small adverse market movement can result not only in the loss of the entire investment, but may also expose the Sub-Fund to the possibility of a loss exceeding the original amount invested.

Other risks inherent in the use of derivatives include, but are not limited to (a) the dependence on the Manager’s ability to correctly predict the direction of interest rates, currencies exchange rates and securities prices; (b) the imperfect correlation between the returns of the derivative instruments used for hedging and the returns of the securities they hedge; (c) the fact that skills needed to use these strategies are different from those needed to select portfolio securities; (d) the possible absence of a liquid secondary market for any particular derivative instrument at any time; (e) the default of the counterparty on the terms of the derivative contract; (f) the risk of mispricing or improper valuation of derivatives; and (g) the risk of higher volatility of the returns as derivatives usually have a leverage component.

Other risks

- (a) Liquidity risk – A Sub-Fund may invest in instruments where the volume of transactions may fluctuate significantly depending on market sentiment. There is a risk that investments made by a Sub-Fund may become less liquid in response to market developments or adverse investor perceptions. In extreme market situations, there may be no willing buyer and the investments cannot be readily sold at the desired time or price, and the relevant Sub-Fund may have to accept a lower price to sell the investments or may not be able to sell the investments at all. An inability to sell a portfolio position can adversely affect the net asset value of a Sub-Fund or prevent a Sub-Fund from being able to take advantage of other investment opportunities.

Liquidity risk also includes the risk that a Sub-Fund will not be able to pay redemption proceeds within the allowable time period because of unusual market conditions, an unusually high volume of redemption requests, or other uncontrollable factors. To meet redemption requests, a Sub-Fund may be forced to sell investments, at an unfavourable time and/or conditions.

- (b) Custodial risk – Custodians or sub-custodians may be appointed in local markets for the purpose of safekeeping assets in those markets. Where a Sub-Fund invests in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed, the assets of the Sub-Fund may be exposed to custodial risk. In case of liquidation, bankruptcy or insolvency of a custodian or sub-custodian, the Sub-Fund may take a longer time to recover its assets or, in extreme cases, be unable to recover its assets. The costs borne by a Sub-Fund in investing and holding investments in such markets will be generally higher than in an organized securities market, which may adversely affect the net asset value of such Sub-Fund and investors may as a result suffer loss.
- (c) Hedging risk – The Manager is permitted, but not obliged, to use hedging instruments or hedging techniques to attempt to offset risks. There is no guarantee that hedging instruments will be available or hedging techniques will achieve their desired result. This may have adverse impact on the relevant Sub-Fund and its investors.

- (d) Risks associated with Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA”) – The Fund intends to fully comply with the legislation and the obligations imposed on it by FATCA and meet its obligation under the IGA (as defined below) with the US government. However, no assurance can be given that the Fund will be able to fully achieve this and avoid being subject to US withholding taxes. In the event that Hong Kong as a jurisdiction is deemed not to meet its obligations, or if the Fund as a Hong Kong financial institution is deemed by the Hong Kong and/or US government not to be meeting its obligations in the future, the Fund may become subject to additional US withholding taxes, which could materially impact US sourced income (including predominantly interests, dividends and certain derivative payments). Investors should consult their legal, tax and financial advisers to determine their status under the FATCA regime before making any decision to invest in the Fund and the Sub-Funds.
- (e) Termination risk – Under the terms of the Trust Deed, the Manager may early terminate the Fund or a Sub-Fund in various circumstances including, without limitation, if (a) at any time one year after its establishment, the net asset value of the Fund is less than HK$500,000,000 (or in the case of a Sub-Fund, the aggregate net asset value of the Units of the relevant classes outstanding in respect of that Sub-Fund is less than HK$100,000,000); or (b) the Fund or a Sub-Fund is no longer authorised under the Securities and Futures Ordinance or the MPFS Ordinance. On termination of the Fund or a Sub-Fund, the assets comprised therein will be sold, investors will receive distribution of the net cash proceeds which may be less than the amount they originally invested. Please see the sections titled “Termination of the Fund” and “Termination of a Sub-Fund” for further details.

Investment and Borrowing Restrictions

Investment Restrictions

The assets in the Sub-Funds may be invested only in the investments permitted under and in accordance with:

- (a) the provisions of Part V and Schedule 1 of the MPF Regulation and any codes and guidelines relating to investment practices issued by the MPF Authority, to the extent such provisions, codes and guidelines are applicable to approved pooled investment funds; and
- (b) Chapter 7 and Chapter 8.2 of the UTMF Code (where applicable) issued by the SFC.

For the avoidance of doubt, each Sub-Fund will adhere to the investment and borrowing restrictions contained in Part V and Schedule 1 of the MPF Regulation and any codes and guidelines relating to investment practices issued by the MPF Authority as well as the UTMF Code issued by the SFC, insofar as applicable and unless otherwise agreed with the SFC and the MPF Authority. In the event where there is any conflict between the restrictions imposed under the SFC and the MPF Authority, the more restricted approach will be adopted such that the requirements under both SFC and MPF Authority will be followed and complied.

A summary of the investment restrictions in respect of the Sub-Funds is as follows:

- (i) The aggregate value of each Sub-Fund’s investments in, or exposure to, any single entity through the following may not exceed 10% of its total net asset value:
 - (a) investments in securities issued by that entity;
 - (b) exposure to that entity through underlying assets of financial derivative instruments; and
 - (c) net counterparty exposure to that entity arising from transactions of over-the-counter financial derivative instruments.
- (ii) Subject to (i), the aggregate value of each Sub-Fund’s investments in, or exposure to, entities within the same group through the following may not exceed 20% of its total net asset value:
 - (a) investments in securities issued by those entities;
 - (b) exposure to those entities through underlying assets of financial derivative instruments; and
 - (c) net counterparty exposure to those entities arising from transactions of over-the-counter financial derivative instruments.

For the purposes of (ii) and (iii), entities which are included in the same group for the purposes of consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with internationally recognized accounting standards are generally regarded as “entities within the same group”.

- (iii) The value of each Sub-Fund’s cash deposits made with the same entity or entities within the same group may not exceed 20% of its total net asset value, except under the following circumstances:
 - (a) cash held before the launch of each Sub-Fund and for a reasonable period thereafter prior to the initial subscription proceeds being fully invested; or
 - (b) cash proceeds from liquidation of investments prior to the merger or termination of each Sub-Fund, whereby the placing of cash deposits with various financial institutions would not be in the best interests of investors; or
 - (c) cash proceeds received from subscriptions pending investments and cash held for the settlement of redemption and other payment obligations, whereby the placing of cash deposits with various financial institutions be unduly burdensome and the cash deposits arrangement would not compromise investors’ interests.

For the purpose of this sub-paragraph (iii), cash deposits generally refer to those that are repayable on demand or have the right to be withdrawn by the Sub-Fund and not referable to provision of property or services.

- (iv) Each Sub-Fund may not hold more than 10% of any ordinary shares issued by any single entity.
- (v) Notwithstanding (i), (ii) and (iv), up to 30% of each Sub-Fund's total net asset value may be invested in Government and other public securities of the same issue.
- (vi) Subject to (v), each Sub-Fund may invest all of its assets in Government and other public securities in at least six different issues. For the avoidance of doubt, Government and other public securities will be regarded as being of a different issue if, even though they are issued by the same person, they are issued on different terms whether as to repayment dates, interest rates, the identity of the guarantor, or otherwise.
- (vii) The value of a Sub-Fund's investment in units or shares in other collective investment schemes may not in aggregate exceed 10% of its total net asset value provided that the Manager or any person acting on behalf of the Fund or the Manager may not obtain a rebate on any fees or charges levied by such collective investment scheme or its manager or any quantifiable monetary benefits in connection with investments in any underlying scheme.
- (viii) No investment may be made in any underlying scheme the investment objective of which is to invest primarily in any investment prohibited by Chapter 7 of the UTMF Code.
- (ix) Each Sub-Fund may not invest in any type of real estate (including buildings) or interests in real estate (including options or rights but excluding shares in real estate companies and interests in real estate investment trusts (REITs)).
- (x) No short sale may be made.
- (xi) Subject to (xvi) and (xvii) below, the Sub-Fund may not lend, assume, guarantee, endorse or otherwise become directly or contingently liable for or in connection with any obligation or indebtedness of any person.
- (xii) The Sub-Fund may not acquire any asset or engage in any transaction which involves the assumption of any liability which is unlimited.
- (xiii) The liability of Unitholders must be limited to their investments in a Sub-Fund.
- (xiv) Each Sub-Fund may not invest in any security of any class in any company or body if any director or officer of the Manager individually owns more than 0.5% of the total nominal amount of all the issued securities of that class or collectively the directors and officers of the Manager own more than 5% of those securities.
- (xv) The portfolio of a Sub-Fund may not include any security where a call is to be made for any sum unpaid on that security.
- (xvi) Borrowing securities for the purposes of the Sub-Fund is prohibited. However, the Manager may* allow securities held in the Sub-Fund to be loaned under a securities lending agreement of such terms as the Trustee may approve only if:
 - (a) the amount of the consideration (including the value of any collateral security) given for the securities exceeds the value of those securities by 5% of their value;
 - (b) no more than 10% of the net asset value of the Sub-Fund can be the subject of security lending agreements; and
 - (c) no more than 50% of shares of the same issue held in respect of the Sub-Fund can be the subject of security lending agreements.
- (xvii) The assets in the Sub-Fund should not be applied for the purpose of entering into a repurchase agreement unless the agreement is entered into by the custodian of the Sub-Fund and only if (a) the amount of the consideration (including the value of any collateral security) given for the relevant security exceeds the value of the security by 5% of its value; and (b) no more than 10% of the assets of the Sub-Fund are the subject of repurchase agreements; and (c) no more than 50% of the securities of the same issue held among the assets of the Sub-Fund are the subject of repurchase agreements.
- (xviii) The assets in the Sub-Fund should not be the subject of a reverse repurchase agreement under which the Trustee agrees to buy a debt security from a person and to resell it to that person at a specified date in the future for an agreed price.
- (xix) Certain Sub-Funds may enter into financial futures contracts, financial option contracts and currency forward contracts for hedging purposes. For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (xix), such instruments are generally considered as being acquired for hedging purposes if they meet all the following criteria:
 - (a) they are not aimed at generating any investment return;
 - (b) they are solely intended for the purpose of limiting, offsetting or eliminating the probability of loss or risks arising from the investments being hedged;
 - (c) although they may not necessarily reference to the same underlying assets, they should relate to the same asset class with high correlation in terms of risks and return, and involve taking opposite positions, in respect of the investments being hedged; and

- (d) they exhibit price movements with high negative correlation with the investments being hedged under normal market conditions.
- (xx) The Manager shall at all times take reasonable steps to enable a Sub-Fund to meet all the payment and delivery obligations incurred by the Sub-Fund under transactions in financial futures contracts, financial option contracts or currency forward contracts. The Manager shall, as part of its risk management process, monitor to ensure that the transactions in financial futures contracts, financial option contracts and currency forward contracts are adequately covered on an ongoing basis. For the purpose of this sub-paragraph (xx), assets that are used to cover the Sub-Fund's payment and delivery obligations incurred under transactions in financial futures contracts, financial option contracts and currency forward contracts should be free from any liens and encumbrances, exclude any cash or near cash for the purpose of meeting a call on any sum unpaid on a security, and cannot be applied for any other purposes.
- (xxi) Subject to sub-paragraph (xx), a transaction in financial futures contracts, financial option contracts or currency forward contracts which gives rise to a future commitment or contingent commitment of a Sub-Fund should be covered as follows:
 - (a) in the case of transactions regarding the above-mentioned instruments which will, or may at the Sub-Fund's discretion, be cash settled, the Sub-Fund should at all times hold sufficient assets that can be liquidated within a short timeframe to meet the payment obligation; and
 - (b) in the case of transactions regarding the above-mentioned instruments which will, or may at the counterparty's discretion, require physical delivery of the underlying assets, the Sub-Fund should hold the underlying assets in sufficient quantity at all times to meet the delivery obligation. If the Manager considers the underlying assets to be liquid and tradable, the Sub-Fund may hold other alternative assets in sufficient quantity as cover, provided that such assets may be readily converted into the underlying assets at any time to meet the delivery obligation.

As at the date of this Explanatory Memorandum, the Manager does not have any intention to enter into any securities lending agreement, repurchase agreement and reverse repurchase transactions in respect of any Sub-Fund. If the Manager subsequently determines that a securities lending agreement, repurchase agreement or reverse repurchase transactions shall be entered into in respect of a Sub-Fund, prior written notice will be given to Unitholders and this Explanatory Memorandum will be updated to contain the relevant details of the securities lending arrangements.*

The net derivative exposure of the relevant Sub-Funds, which will enter into financial futures contracts, financial option contracts and currency forward contracts for hedging purposes, may be up to 50% of its net asset value.

Borrowing Restrictions

Subject to section 4 of Schedule 1 of the MPF Regulation, the provisions of the UTMF Code and any other statutory requirements and restrictions, borrowing may be effected by the Trustee for the account of the Sub-Funds.

In summary, the maximum borrowing of the Sub-Fund may not exceed 10% of its total net asset value.

A Sub-Fund will not incur any leverage arising from the use of any financial derivative instruments.

General

If any of the investment and borrowing restrictions are breached, the Manager shall as a priority objective take all steps necessary within a reasonable period to remedy the situation, having due regard to the interests of Unitholders.

Available only to investors who at the time the relevant subscription order is received are customers of certain distributors appointed specifically for the purpose of distributing the R2 Class Units, and only in respect of those Sub-Funds for which distribution agreements have been made with such distributors.
- (vi) R6 Class Units – not being Retail Class Units or R2 Class Units and which intends to distribute dividends on a quarterly basis. Available to retail investors and any other investors to which the Pension Class Units, Investment Class Units and I6 Class Units are not made available.

Units in each class will be denominated in HK dollars.

Investment Class Units, Pension Class Units and I6 Class Units are being offered for subscriptions by all Sub-Funds.

Retail Class Units, R2 Class Units and R6 Class Units are being offered for subscriptions by all Sub-Funds (except Principal Asian Bond Fund).

Initial Issue of Units

The initial period of a class is determined at the discretion of the Trustee and the Manager.

Units are being offered initially at an initial issue price of HK$10.00 per unit (exclusive of any applicable initial charge). Dealing of the Units will commence on the Dealing Day immediately following the closure of its initial period.

Application for any class of Units during initial period

Applications for any class of Units must be made in the manner set out below under “Application Procedure”. In respect of applications for the Units received by the Manager prior to 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on the last day of the initial period, Units will be issued on the Dealing Day following the close of the initial period. The original of any Application Form given by facsimile must be forwarded to the Manager. Neither the Manager nor the Trustee shall be responsible to an investor for any loss resulting from non-receipt of any Application Form sent by facsimile.

Subsequent Issues of Units

After the initial period, applications for Units received by the Manager prior to 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on a Dealing Day will be dealt with on that Dealing Day, and Units will be issued at the issue price as at that Dealing Day. Where applications are received after such time or on a day which is not a Dealing Day, they will be carried forward and dealt with on the next Dealing Day.

The issue price of Units of the relevant class of a Sub-Fund on a Dealing Day will be calculated by reference to the net asset value per Unit of such class of that Sub-Fund as at close of business in the last relevant market to close on that Dealing Day (for further details, see “Calculation of Issue and Redemption Prices” on page 24 below).

Initial Charge

The Manager may levy an initial charge on the issue of the Retail Class Units, R2 Class Units and R6 Class Units of each Sub-Fund. The maximum amount of such initial charge is 5% of the issue price of the Units of the relevant Class.

No initial charge will be levied in respect of the issue of the Investment Class Units, Pension Class Units and I6 Class Units.

Minimum Subscription and Subsequent Holding

The minimum amounts of each subscription in each class of Sub-Fund during and after the initial period are set out below. Furthermore, the Manager may require a Unitholder to redeem all his Units in any class of Sub-Fund in full if by means of partial redemption the Unitholder’s holding in such class of Sub-Fund falls below the minimum balance requirements as follows:

	Initial subscription (inclusive of initial charges)	Each subsequent subscription (inclusive of initial charges)	Minimum balance
Investment Class Units	HK$5,000,000	HK$200,000	HK$5,000,000
I6 Class Units	HK$5,000,000	HK$200,000	HK$5,000,000
Pension Class Units	No minimum requirement	No minimum requirement	No minimum requirement
Retail Class Units	HK$10,000	HK$5,000	HK$10,000
R2 Class Units	HK$10,000	HK$5,000	HK$10,000
R6 Class Units	HK$10,000	HK$5,000	HK$10,000

Investors should note that no minimum requirement is imposed in respect of Pension Class Units of the Sub-Funds. In addition, notwithstanding the minimum subscription or minimum holding requirements imposed in respect of Investment Class Units and I6 Class Units of the Sub-Funds, no such requirements will be applicable to a person who is acting as the trustee of a registered scheme (or trustee or insurer of an approved pooled investment fund) under the MPFS Ordinance which scheme (or fund) invests in the Investment Class Units or I6 Class Units of the Sub-Fund(s) by way of a feeder fund or portfolio management fund arrangement. Further, the Manager may at its own discretion lower or waive any of the above minimum requirements for any other Unitholder.

Application Procedure

Applications for Units must be made by completing the enclosed Master Account Opening Form and Subscription Form and sending the forms to the Manager. The original of any Master Account Opening Form and Subscription Form given by facsimile must be forwarded to the Manager. Neither the Manager nor the Trustee shall be responsible to an investor for any loss resulting from non-receipt of any Master Account Opening Form and Subscription Form sent by facsimile.

Payment Procedure

Payment for Units and any applicable initial charge may be made by cheque, payable to Principal Trust Company (Asia) Limited – Unit Trust Subscription Account and crossed “A/C Payee Only, Not Negotiable” or by telegraphic transfer net of all bank charges (i.e. at the expense of the applicant). The account details are as follows:

Name: : Citibank N.A. Hong Kong

Account Name : Principal Trust Company (Asia) Limited – Principal Unit Trust Client Account Subscription

Account No : HK dollars 006-391-61239968

US dollars 006-391-61239976

Payment for Units shall be due (i) prior to the close of the initial period (for subscriptions of Units during the initial period); or (ii) upon issue of the Units (for subsequent issue of Units after the initial period). If cleared fund is not received on the relevant due date, the Manager may, without prejudice to any claim against the applicant in respect of the failure to make payment when due, determine in its discretion that the application be cancelled. In such circumstances, the relevant Units shall be deemed never to be issued. Furthermore, no redemption or switching transactions may be effected until the initial subscription has been completed.

Payment should be made in Hong Kong dollars or U.S. dollars in one of the ways set out in the Subscription Form. Arrangements can be made for applicants to pay for Units in other freely convertible currencies and in such cases, the Trustee or the Manager shall use such currency exchange rates as they may from time to time determine. The cost of currency conversion will be borne by the applicant. Conversion of currencies may involve some delay. Third party cheques and cash are not accepted. No money should be paid to an intermediary in Hong Kong who is not licensed or registered to carry on Type 1 regulated activity under Part V of the Securities and Futures Ordinance.

General

Units issued by the Fund will be held for investors in registered form. Certificates will not be issued. A contract note will be issued upon acceptance of an investor's application and will be forwarded by ordinary post (at the risk of the person entitled thereto).

Fractions of a Unit will be issued and will be rounded to the nearest 4th decimal places (or such other number of decimal places as the Manager may consider appropriate). Any amount corresponding to the rounding will be borne by or retained for the relevant Sub-Fund.

The Manager has an absolute discretion to accept or reject in whole or in part any application for Units (except that the Manager shall accept any duly completed applications made by a person who is acting as the trustee of a registered scheme (or trustee or insurer of an approved pooled investment fund) under the MPFS Ordinance which scheme (or fund) invests in the Sub-Fund(s) by way of a feeder fund or portfolio management fund arrangement). In the event that an application is rejected, application monies will be returned without interest by cheque through the post at the risk of the person(s) entitled thereto. No Units of a Sub-Fund will be issued where the determination of the net asset value of that Sub-Fund is suspended (for further details see “Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value” on page 25 below).

Redemption of Units

Subject as mentioned below, any Unitholder may realise his Units on any Dealing Day in whole or in part. No redemption charge will be levied on the redemption of Units of any Sub-Fund. A redemption request may be given to the Manager in writing or by facsimile and must specify:

- (a) the name of the relevant Sub-Fund;
- (b) the class and number of Units or the amount of monies to be redeemed;
- (c) the name(s) of the registered holder(s); and
- (d) payment instructions for the redemption proceeds.

The original of any redemption request given by facsimile must be forwarded to the Manager. Neither the Manager nor the Trustee shall be responsible to a Unitholder for any loss resulting from non-receipt of any redemption request sent by facsimile.

Redemption requests received by the Manager prior to 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on a Dealing Day will be dealt with on that Dealing Day. Redemption requests received by the Manager after such time or on a day which is not a Dealing Day will be carried forward and dealt with on the next Dealing Day. Units of the relevant class realised on a Dealing Day will be redeemed at a price calculated by reference to the net asset value per Unit of that class of the relevant Sub-Fund as at close of business in the last relevant market to close on that Dealing Day (for further details, see "Calculation of Issue and Redemption Prices" on page 24 below).

Payment of Redemption Proceeds

Redemption proceeds will not be paid to any redeeming Unitholder until (a) the written original of the redemption request duly signed by the Unitholder has been received by or on behalf of the Manager and (b) where the Trustee so requires, the signature of the Unitholder (or each joint Unitholder) has been verified to the satisfaction of the Trustee.

Redemption proceeds from the Sub-Funds will normally be paid in HK dollars, rounded down to the nearest cent. Unitholders may, however, request the proceeds to be paid in other currencies, in which case, the proceeds may be converted to the requested currency at the prevailing exchange rate. Any exchange rate risk will be borne by the Unitholder concerned and the Unitholder may be required to pay a handling fee.

Subject as mentioned above and so long as relevant account details have been provided, redemption proceeds will be paid by telegraphic transfer (less the cost of effecting such telegraphic transfer), normally within 7 Business Days after the relevant Dealing Day. In any event, the maximum interval for the payment of the redemption proceeds will not exceed one calendar month from (i) the relevant Dealing Day or (ii) the date on which the duly completed original redemption documentation has been received by the Manager, whichever is the later (unless payment of redemption proceeds has been suspended – see "Restrictions on Redemption" below). Request by the redeeming Unitholder to make the payment to a third party will not be accepted unless approval is obtained from the Manager or additional supporting documents as may be required by the Trustee are provided. Where a redemption request provides for the redemption proceeds to be paid to any person other than the registered Unitholder(s) or to be paid by telegraphic transfer to a bank account in New York or Hong Kong, the signature of the Unitholder or (in the case of joint Unitholders) each Unitholder on that redemption request must be verified to the satisfaction of the Trustee. If relevant account details are not provided, redemption proceeds will be paid to the redeeming Unitholder (or to all Unitholders in case of joint Unitholders) at the Unitholder's risk by cheque in HK dollars. In the case of joint Unitholders, the cheque will be drawn in the names of all Unitholders. Bank charges (if any) incurred in making payment will be borne by the redeeming Unitholder and accordingly will be deducted from the redemption proceeds.

Payment of Redemption Proceeds by Distribution in Specie

Notwithstanding the above, the Manager may in certain circumstances with the consent of the Unitholders concerned effect a redemption payment to the redeeming Unitholders in specie or in kind rather than in cash. The circumstances in which the Manager envisages effecting such a redemption payment include, without limitation, a situation where substantial redemption requests are received by the relevant Sub-Fund which will make it impracticable to realise the underlying securities in order to fund the redemption payments. In making redemption payments in specie or in kind, the Manager will use the same valuation procedures used in determining the net asset value of the Sub-Fund (for further details, see "Calculation of Net Asset Value and Issue and Redemption Prices" on page 24 below) when determining the value to be attributed to the relevant securities to be transferred or assigned or otherwise made available to the redeeming Unitholders. Redeeming Unitholders will then receive securities of a value equal to the redemption payment to which they would otherwise be entitled. Redeeming Unitholders receiving the redemption payment in specie or in kind will be responsible for all custody and other costs involved in changing the ownership of the relevant securities from the Sub-Fund to the redeeming Unitholder and for all ongoing custody costs in respect of such securities.

Restrictions on Redemption

The Manager shall suspend the redemption of Units and/or may delay the payment of redemption proceeds during any periods in which the determination of the net asset value of the relevant Sub-Fund is suspended (for further details see “Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value” on page 25 below).

Having regard to the best interests of Unitholders, the Manager is entitled, with the approval of the Trustee, to limit the total net asset value or total number of Units of any Sub-Fund redeemed on any Dealing Day (whether by sale to the Manager or by cancellation by the Trustee) to Units representing 10% of the total net asset value or the total number of Units of any Sub-Fund in issue, respectively. In practice, the Manager, with the approval of the Trustee, would opt to limit the redemption of any Sub-Fund on any Dealing Day (whether by sale to the Manager or by cancellation by the Trustee) to 10% of the latest available total net asset value of such Sub-Fund instead of 10% of the total number of Units of such Sub-Fund in issue. In this event, the limitation will apply pro rata so that all Unitholders of the relevant class or classes wishing to redeem Units in that Sub-Fund on that Dealing Day will redeem the same proportion by value of such Units, and Units not redeemed (but which would otherwise have been redeemed) will be carried forward for redemption, subject to the same limitation, on the next Dealing Day. If requests for redemption are so carried forward, the Manager will inform the Unitholders concerned.

In addition,

- (i) no Unitholder shall be entitled to realise part only of his holding of Units of any class of Sub-Fund if such redemption would result in his holding in that class of Sub-Fund after such redemption being less than the minimum balance requirements as set out in “Issue of Units – Minimum Subscription and Subsequent Holding” on page 20; and
- (ii) Unitholders are not allowed to realise any Units prior to the date falling seven days after the Dealing Day on which such Unit was acquired by such Unitholders or if earlier, the date of receipt of payment in cleared funds for such Unit.

Notwithstanding the above, neither of the restrictions in (i) nor (ii) will be applicable to a person who is acting as the trustee of a registered scheme (or trustee or insurer of an approved pooled investment fund) under the MPFS Ordinance which scheme (or fund) invests in the Pension Class Units, Investment Class Units or I6 Class Units of the Sub-Fund(s) by way of a feeder fund or portfolio management fund arrangement.

As at the date of this Explanatory Memorandum, there is no minimum redemption requirement in respect of redemption of any class of Sub-Funds. If the Manager subsequently determines that a minimum redemption requirement will be imposed, prior notice will be given to the Unitholders.

Switching between Sub-Funds

Subject to the consent of the Manager, Unitholders will have the right (subject to any suspension in the determination of the net asset value of any relevant Sub-Fund) to switch all or part of their Units of any class relating to a Sub-Fund into Units of the same class relating to another Sub-Fund by giving to the Manager notice in writing or by facsimile or such other means as the Manager may from time to time prescribe.

Switching requests received by the Manager prior to 5:00 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on a Dealing Day will be dealt with on that Dealing Day. Switching requests received after such time or on a day which is not a Dealing Day will be carried forward and dealt with on the next Dealing Day. Where a switching request is made by facsimile, neither the Manager nor the Trustee shall be responsible to any Unitholder for any loss resulting from the non-receipt of such switching request.

The price at which the whole or any part of a holding of Units of a class relating to a Sub-Fund (the “Current Class”) will be switched on any Dealing Day into Units of the same class relating to another Sub-Fund (the “New Class”) will be determined by reference to the redemption price of the Current Class and issue price of the New Class on the relevant Dealing Day.

In respect of switching of Units of the Investment Class, I6 Class, Retail Class, R2 Class and R6 Class, the Manager is entitled to levy a switching fee of up to 1% of the issue price per Unit of the New Class to be issued. The switching fee will be deducted from the amount re-invested into the New Class of Units. However, each Unitholder will be entitled to have 4 free switches in each calendar year before any such switching fee may be levied. No switching fee will be levied for switching of Units of the Pension Class.

No switching will be allowed during any period when the determination of the net asset value of any relevant Sub-Fund is suspended (for further details, see “Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value” on page 25). Unitholders should also note that the requirements on minimum subscription and subsequent holding as set out in the section “Minimum Subscription and Subsequent Holding” on page 20 and the restrictions on redemption (including the minimum holding requirement after redemption and the minimum redemption amount) as set out in the section “Restrictions on Redemption” on page 23 shall also be applicable in the case of switching.

Calculation of Net Asset Value and Issue and Redemption Prices

The Manager or the Trustee (as they may between them decide) will value each Sub-Fund and calculate the issue and redemption prices per Unit of each class in accordance with the Trust Deed as at close of business in the last relevant market to close on each Dealing Day. The Trust Deed provides (inter alia) that the value of the investments in the Sub-Funds shall be determined as follows:

- (i) except in the case of any interest in a collective investment scheme to which paragraph (ii) applies and subject as provided in paragraph (vi) below, the value of any investments quoted, listed, or normally dealt in on any market shall be calculated by reference to the last traded price on the relevant Dealing Day or (if no last traded price is available) midway between the latest available market offered price and the latest available market bid price on the principal market on which such investments is quoted, listed or ordinarily dealt in and in determining such prices the Manager and the Trustee shall be entitled to use and rely on electronic price feeds from such source or sources as it may from time to time determine notwithstanding that the prices so used are not the last traded prices;
- (ii) subject as provided in paragraphs (iii) and (vi) below, the value of each unit, share or other interest in any collective investment scheme which is valued as at the same day as the relevant Sub-Fund shall be the net asset value per unit or share in such collective investment scheme as at that day or, if the Manager so determines, or if such collective investment scheme is not valued as at the same day as the Sub-Fund, the value of such interest shall be the last available net asset value per unit, share or other interest in such collective investment scheme;
- (iii) if no net asset value, bid and offer prices or price quotations are available as provided in paragraph (ii) above, the market value of the relevant investment shall be determined from time to time in such manner as the Manager shall determine;
- (iv) the value of any investment which is not quoted, listed or ordinarily dealt in on a market shall be the initial value thereof equal to the amount expended out of the relevant Sub-Fund in the acquisition of such investment (including in each case the amount of stamp duties, commissions and other acquisition expenses) provided that the Manager may at any time with the approval of the Trustee and shall on a regular basis, cause a revaluation to be made by a professional person approved by the Trustee as qualified to value such investments;
- (v) cash, deposits and similar investments shall be valued at their face value (together with accrued interest) unless, in the opinion of the Manager, any adjustment should be made to reflect the market value thereof;
- (vi) notwithstanding the foregoing, the Manager may with the prior consent in writing of the Trustee adjust the value of any investment or permit some other method of valuation to be used with due skill, care and diligence and in good faith if, having regard to relevant circumstances, the market value of the investment is unavailable, or the Manager considers that the market value of the investment is not reliable or reflective of an exit price upon current sale; and
- (vii) the value of any investment (whether of a security or cash) otherwise than in the currency of the relevant Sub-Fund shall be converted into the currency of such Sub-Fund at the rate (whether official or otherwise) which the Manager shall deem appropriate in the circumstances having regard to any premium or discount which may be relevant and to costs of exchange.

Calculation of Issue and Redemption Prices

The number of undivided shares in a Sub-Fund represented by a Unit of a class relating to such Sub-Fund is adjusted on each Dealing Day in order to take account of the different levels of fees borne by the different classes of Unit in the relevant Sub-Fund.

The issue and redemption prices of Units of a class on a Dealing Day shall be determined by (i) calculating the net asset value of the relevant Sub-Fund as at such Dealing Day before the deduction of any liabilities or the addition of any assets attributable specifically to the class in question; (ii) apportioning such amount between each class of Units relating to such Sub-Fund by reference to the numbers of undivided shares in the relevant Sub-Fund represented by all Units of each class relating to such Sub-Fund in issue; (iii) deducting or adding the liabilities and assets specifically attributable to the class of Units in question from or to such apportioned amount; (iv) dividing the resulting sum by the number of Units of the relevant class in issue immediately prior to the relevant Dealing Day for such class of Units; and (v) rounding the resulting sum down to 4 decimal places of the base currency of the relevant Sub-Fund (for the determination of issue price) and rounding the resulting sum down to 4 decimal places of the base currency of the relevant Sub-Fund (for the determination of the redemption price), or in either case, in such other manner as the Manager may consider appropriate. Any amounts corresponding to the rounding up or down of the prices shall be retained for the benefit of the relevant Sub-Funds.

The Manager is entitled to an initial charge of up to 5% of the issue price on the issue of the Retail Class Units, R2 Class Units and R6 Class Units. Such initial charge will be retained by the Manager for its own use and benefit. The Manager may waive or reduce the initial charge for any Unitholder as the Manager may consider appropriate.

No initial charge will be levied for the issue of Investment Class Units, I6 Class Units and Pension Class Units of any Sub-Funds.

No redemption charge will be levied on the redemption of Units of any Sub-Fund.

Any roundings as a result of determining the issue price or redemption price shall be retained for the benefit of the relevant Sub-Fund.

Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value

The Manager may, in consultation with the Trustee, having regard to the best interests of Unitholders, declare a suspension of the determination of the net asset value of any Sub-Fund for the whole or any part of any period during which:

- (a) there is a closure or restriction or suspension of trading on any securities market on which a substantial part of the investments of that Sub-Fund is normally traded or a breakdown in any of the means normally employed in ascertaining the prices of investments or the price of Units; or
- (b) for any other reason the prices of investments of that Sub-Fund cannot, in the opinion of the Manager, reasonably, promptly and fairly be ascertained; or
- (c) circumstances exist as a result of which, in the opinion of the Manager, it is not reasonably practicable to realise any investments of that Sub-Fund or it is not reasonably practicable to do so without seriously prejudicing the interests of Unitholders in such Sub-Fund; or
- (d) the remittance or repatriation of funds which will or may be involved in the redemption of, or in the payment for, the investments of that Sub-Fund or the subscription or redemption of Units is delayed or cannot, in the opinion of the Manager, be carried out promptly at normal rates of exchange.

Whenever the Manager declares such a suspension it shall, immediately after any such declaration and at least once a month during the period of such suspension, publish a notice on the website www.principal.com.hk¹ and/or cause a notice to be given to Unitholders and to all those (whether Unitholders or not) whose applications to subscribe for or redeem Units shall have been affected by such suspension stating that such declaration has been made.

Subject to the approval of the MPF Authority and the SFC, the Manager may change the valuation and pricing methodology as provided in the above by giving a three month prior notice (or such other shorter notice as the SFC may approve) to the Unitholders. However, as at the date of this Explanatory Memorandum, there is no circumstance within the contemplation of the Manager which may give rise to a change in the valuation or pricing methodology. The Manager will regularly review any such prolonged suspension and take all necessary steps to resume normal operations as soon as practicable.

Distribution Policy

For Investment Class Units, I6 Class Units, Pension Class Units, Retail Class Units and R2 Class Units

The Manager currently does not intend to make distributions in respect of the Investment Class Units, I6 Class Units, Pension Class Units, Retail Class Units and R2 Class Units of any Sub-Fund and any income earned by such classes of a Sub-Fund will be reinvested in the relevant class or classes of that Sub-Fund and reflected in the value of Units of the relevant class or classes of that Sub-Fund. If the Manager intends to make any distributions in respect of any such class or classes of a Sub-Fund, the Manager will give the relevant Unitholders 3 months' notice (or such other period of as the MPF Authority and the SFC may require).

For R6 Class Units

For R6 Class Units of any Sub-Fund, the Manager at present intends to distribute all income or any part thereof received by the relevant Sub-Fund and attributable to such Units generally on a quarterly basis in March, June, September and December each year. However, this is not a guarantee that such distributions will be made or that there will be a target level of income distribution for any Sub-Fund. The level and frequency of the income distributed by any Sub-Fund does not necessarily indicate the total return and income of such Sub-Fund.

However, the Manager may determine at its absolute discretion that no distribution shall be made (whether by way of interim distribution or final distribution) in respect of R6 Class Units of any Sub-Fund.

Subject to receipt of dividend yields from the Sub-Fund's underlying investments, where distributions payable to a Unitholder exceed HK$500, such distributions will normally be paid by cheque by post (in HK dollars), at the risk of the Unitholder entitled thereto. Unitholders may also receive distribution payments through telegraphic transfer (after deduction of the relevant bank charges) by giving prior written instructions to the Manager. Distributions will normally be made within eight weeks following the end of the relevant distribution period. Currently, the end dates of the quarterly distribution periods of R6 Class Units are 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December each year.

Unitholders may by giving written instructions to the Manager elect to reinvest distributions to which they are entitled in subscribing for further Units in the Sub-Fund. Any distributions currently below HK$500 will automatically be reinvested in additional Units for the account of the Unitholder entitled thereto.

¹The website has not been reviewed by the SFC.

The Manager may, in accordance with Clause 19.07 of the Trust Deed of the Fund, at its discretion determine to deduct all or any part of the fees as well as the expenses attributable to a Sub-Fund from the capital of that Sub-Fund. If the Manager pays dividends (if any) out of gross income while paying all or part of the fees and expenses attributable to R6 Class Units out of the capital of such Units, this will result in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends and the R6 Class Units of the relevant Sub-Fund may therefore effectively pay dividends paid out of capital.

Investors should note that payment of dividends effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of his/her original investment in the R6 Class Units of the relevant Sub-Fund or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions involving payment of dividends effectively out of the capital of the R6 Class Units of a Sub-Fund may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per Unit for such class of the relevant Sub-Fund.

Subject to prior approval of the SFC, the Manager may amend the above-mentioned dividend policy in respect of R6 Class Units of any Sub-Fund in the future by giving the affected Unitholders not less than one month's notice of such change.

Commencing from the date on which payment of dividends is being made effectively out of the capital of a Sub-Fund, the composition of the dividends (i.e. the relative amounts (i) paid out of net distribution income and (ii) effectively paid out of capital) for the last 12 months for such Sub-Fund will be able to be obtained from the Manager on request and are also available from the website www.principal.com.hk¹. The website has not been reviewed by the SFC.

Regular Savings Plan

Investors who invest in Retail Class Units may elect to participate in the regular savings plan offered by the Manager. Under the regular savings plan, investors should make monthly contributions to his regular savings plan account on the 10th day of each month and the amount of each such contribution shall not be less than HK$2,000 (inclusive of any initial charge). Investors may also decide the period during which they want to participate in the regular savings plan in accordance with their own need and financial planning and there is no minimum participating period prescribed for the plan. No fees will be levied on the opening and closure of the regular savings plan account.

An investor does not need to be an existing Unitholder in order to participate in the regular savings plan.

Contributions to the regular savings plan must be made through direct debit from such bank account as may be designated by the Unitholder. If an investor decides to participate in the regular savings plan, he must submit an application to the Manager at least 60 days before the day on which the first contribution is proposed to be made and successfully arrange for the direct debit authorisation before the first contribution. Any application must be made in the format prescribed by the Manager. If the 10th day of the month is not a Business Day, the direct debit will be effected on the Business Day which immediately follows. If, as a result of the default of the investor, the direct debit cannot be effected successfully on the 10th day of a month or (in the event that the 10th day of the month is not a Business Day) the Business Day which immediately follows, no subscription will be accepted for that month under the regular savings plan. Furthermore, if as a result of the default of the investor, the direct debit cannot be effected successfully for 2 consecutive months, the regular savings plan will be suspended and no further contributions will be accepted under the plan until the investor submits a request to the Manager to re-activate the plan and such request has been accepted by the Manager.

Contributions made under the regular savings plan will be invested in Retail Class Units of such Sub-Fund or Sub-Funds which the investors may from time to time decide provided that the investment in a Sub-Fund each time must not be less than HK$2,000 (inclusive of any applicable initial charge). Units will normally be issued to the Unitholders as at the fifth Business Day after the day on which the direct debit is made.

Investor should also note that the minimum requirements relating to initial subscription and minimum balance under "Minimum Subscription and Subsequent Holding" on page 20 will still be applicable for investments under the regular savings plan.

Investors may switch their Retail Class Units of any Sub-Fund under the regular savings plan to the same class of Units in another Sub-Fund in accordance with the provisions set out in the "Switching Between Sub-Funds" section on page 23.

Investors should note that unless the Manager agrees otherwise, a 14-day prior notice must be given to the Manager for cessation of contributions in the regular savings plan and a 21-day prior notice must be given to the Manager for any amendment made to the regular savings plan.

The regular savings plan is not available to investors who invest in Investment Class Units, I6 Class Units, R2 Class units, R6 Class Units or Pension Class Units of the Sub-Funds.

Charges and Expenses

Charges and expenses may be deducted from the Fund and its Sub-Funds as set out in this section below.

Management Fee

The Manager is entitled to receive a management fee for each Sub-Fund calculated as a percentage of the net asset value of the relevant class of Units of Sub-Fund. The management fee will be deducted from the assets of the relevant Sub-Funds. The maximum management fee for each class of Units of each Sub-Fund is 2% per annum of its net asset value. The management fee which the Manager may currently levy shall be as follows:

Management Fee (p.a.) for the different class of Units
1.	Principal Asian Equity Fund	0.90%	0.80%	Nil	1.20%	1.20%	1.20%
2.	Principal International Bond Fund	0.80%	0.80%	Nil	1.00%	1.00%	1.00%
3.	Principal International Equity Fund	1.00%	0.80%	Nil	1.20%	1.20%	1.20%

Currently, no management fee will be levied for Pension Class Units of the Sub-Funds.

The management fee is accrued daily, calculated on each Dealing Day and is paid monthly in arrears.

The Manager may decrease the rate of management fee in respect of any class of Units of Sub-Fund by giving a notice to the Trustee. Subject to the approval of the MPF Authority, the Manager may also increase the rate of management fee payable up to the maximum rate as set out above by giving the affected Unitholders and the Trustee not less than 3 months' notice (or such other period of notice as the MPF Authority and the SFC may require) of such increase.

Initial Charge, Redemption Charge and Switching Fee

The Manager is entitled to receive an initial charge of up to 5% of the issue price on the issue of Retail Class Units, R2 Class Units and R6 Class Units in each Sub-Fund. In the switching of Units of the Investment Class, I6 Class, Retail Class, R2 Class or R6 Class, the Manager is entitled to levy a switching fee of up to 1% of the issue price of the new class of Units to be issued. However, each Unitholder will be entitled to have 4 free switches in each calendar year.

No initial charge will be levied for the issue of Pension Class Units, Investment Class Units and I6 Class Units and no switching fee will be levied for the switching of Pension Class Units.

No redemption charge will be levied on the redemption of Units of any Sub-Fund.

The Manager may share any fees it receives with distributors or agents procuring subscriptions to the Fund. The Manager and its associates may with the consent of the Trustee deal with any Sub-Fund, both as principal and agent, and, subject as provided below, may retain any benefit which they receive as a result.

Trustee Fee

The Trustee is entitled to receive a trustee fee in respect of each Sub-Fund. The maximum trustee fee for each class of Units of each Sub-Fund is 1% per annum of its net asset value. The trustee fee which the Trustee may currently levy shall be as follows:

Trustee Fee (p.a.) for the different class of Units

11.	Principal Asian Bond Fund	0.20%	0.20%	Nil	N/A	N/A	N/A

The trustee fee will be deducted from the assets of the relevant Sub-Funds. In respect of each Sub-Fund, the Trustee may decrease the rate of trustee fee in respect of any class of Units or, subject to the approval of the MPF Authority, increase the rate of the trustee fee up to the maximum rate as set out above by giving the affected Unitholders and the Manager not less than 3 months' notice (or such other period of notice as the MPF Authority and the SFC may require) of such increase. The trustee fee is accrued daily, calculated on each Dealing Day and is paid monthly in arrears.

Subject to the approval of the MPF Authority and the SFC, the Trustee and the Manager may increase the maximum levels of the above fees and charges in respect of the Pension Class Units, Investment Class Units and I6 Class Units of any Sub-Fund by giving to the Unitholders concerned 3 months' prior written notice (or such other period of notice as the MPF Authority and the SFC may require). Subject to the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution of the Unitholders concerned, the Trustee and the Manager may increase the maximum levels of the fees and charges in respect of the Retail Class Units, R2 Class Units and R6 Class Units of any Sub-Fund.

In addition, the Trustee is entitled to a valuation fee in accordance with its normal scales as agreed with the Manager. Currently, the valuation fee for each Sub-Fund will not exceed HK$1,000 per month.

Distribution Fee

Distributors of the Fund are entitled to receive a distribution fee in respect of R2 Class Units of each Sub-Fund where distribution agreements have been made with such distributors specifically for the purpose of distributing R2 Class Units. The distribution fee is calculated as a percentage of the net asset value of the relevant class of Units of Sub-Fund, accrued daily and will be deducted from the assets of the R2 Class Units of the relevant Sub-Fund. The advertising and promotion expenses in connection with the Fund will not be paid by the Fund's assets. The distribution fee for R2 Class Units of each Sub-Fund is 0.5% per annum of its net asset value. Subject to the giving of 3 month's written notice (or such other period of notice which the MPF Authority and the SFC may require) to the relevant Unitholders, the distribution fee may be increased or the distribution fee may be levied for any other classes of Units.

Other Charges and Expenses

Each Sub-Fund will bear the costs set out in the Trust Deed which are directly attributable to it. Where such costs are not directly attributable to a Sub-Fund, each Sub-Fund will bear such costs in proportion to its respective net asset value or in such other manner as the Manager shall consider appropriate. Such costs include but are not limited to the costs incurred in the establishment, structuring, management and administration of the Fund and its Sub-Funds, the costs of investing and realizing the investments of the Sub-Funds, the fees and expenses of custodians and sub-custodians of the assets of the Fund, the fees and expenses of the auditors, valuation costs, legal fees, the costs incurred in connection with any listing or regulatory approval, the costs of holding meetings of Unitholders, the costs incurred in the preparation and printing of any explanatory memorandum, any audited accounts or interim reports which are sent to the Unitholders and the costs incurred in effecting and maintaining insurance required by the MPFS Ordinance. The current fees and expenses charged by the custodian and sub-custodian include a safekeeping fee (which may range from 0.01% to 0.5% of the value of the assets) and a transaction fee. These fees and expenses may also be subject to change in future.

In addition, each Sub-Fund will bear a due proportion of the costs and expenses incurred by the Manager and the Trustee in establishing the Fund. These costs and expenses are estimated to be approximately HK$1,000,000 (exclude Principal Hong Kong Equity Fund, Principal China Equity Fund, Principal European Equity Fund, Principal Pension Bond Fund and Principal Asian Bond Fund) and may be allocated to the Investment Class Units and Retail Class Units of the Sub-Funds in accordance with their respective net asset values (or such other basis which the Manager considers fair and appropriate) and amortised over the first five years of the Fund.

The Principal Hong Kong Equity Fund will bear the costs and expenses incurred by the Manager and the Trustee in its establishment. Such costs and expenses are estimated to be approximately HK$150,000 and will be charged to the Retail Class Units only and amortised over the first five years of the Retail Class Units being offered.

The Principal China Equity Fund will bear the costs and expenses incurred by the Manager and the Trustee in its establishment. Such costs and expenses are estimated to be approximately HK$40,000 and will be charged to the Investment Class Units, the Pension Class Units and the Retail Class Units and amortised over the first five years of the Principal China Equity Fund being offered.

The Principal Hong Kong Bond Fund will bear the costs and expenses incurred by the Manager and the Trustee in its establishment. Such costs and expenses are estimated to be approximately HK$10,000 and will be charged to and be amortised over the first five years of the Principal Hong Kong Bond Fund being offered.

The Principal Asian Bond Fund will bear the costs and expenses incurred by the Manager and the Trustee in its establishment. Such costs and expenses are estimated to be approximately HK$365,000 and will be charged to and be amortised over the first five years of the Principal Asian Bond Fund being offered.

I6 Class Units will bear the costs and expenses incurred by the Manager and the Trustee in its establishment. Such costs and expense are estimated to be approximately HK$150,000 and will be allocated to the I6 Class Units of the Sub-Funds in accordance with their respective net asset values (or such other basis which the Manager considers fair and appropriate) and amortised over the first five years of I6 Class Units being offered.

R2 Class Units will bear the costs and expenses incurred by the Manager and the Trustee in its establishment. Such costs and expense are estimated to be approximately HK$0 and will be allocated to the R2 Class Units of the Sub-Funds in accordance with their respective net asset values (or such other basis which the Manager considers fair and appropriate) and amortised over the first five years of R2 Class Units being offered.

R6 Class Units will bear the costs and expenses incurred by the Manager and the Trustee in its establishment. Such costs and expense are estimated to be approximately HK$0 and will be allocated to the R6 Class Units of the Sub-Funds in accordance with their respective net asset values (or such other basis which the Manager considers fair and appropriate) and amortised over the first five years of R6 Class Units being offered.

In addition to the above, Unitholders may be required to pay any requisite governmental tax, stamp duty, registration fee, custody and nominee charges as may be required in the purchase or sale of the Units under the Fund.

Cash Rebates and Soft Commissions

Neither the Manager, delegate and sub-delegates of the Manager nor any of its connected persons may retain cash or other rebates from a broker or dealer in consideration of directing transactions to them.

The Manager, delegate and sub-delegates of the Manager and any of their connected persons may effect transactions by or through the agency of another person with whom the Manager, delegate and sub-delegates of the Manager or any of their connected persons have an arrangement under which that party will from time to time provide to or procure for the Manager, delegate and sub-delegates of the Manager or any of its connected persons, goods, services or other benefits, such as research and advisory services, computer hardware associated with specialised software or research services and performance measures etc., the nature of which is such that their provision can reasonably be expected to benefit the Fund as a whole and may contribute to an improvement in the Fund's performance and that of the Manager, delegate and sub-delegates of the Manager or any of their connected persons in providing services to the Fund and for which no direct payment is made but instead the Manager, delegate and sub-delegates of the Manager or any of their connected persons undertake to place business with that party. For the avoidance of doubt such goods and services do not include travel accommodation, entertainment, general administrative goods and services, general office equipment or premises, membership fees, employee salaries or direct money payments. Details of soft commission arrangements will be reported regularly to the Trustee and will be disclosed in the Fund's annual report.

Taxation

The following statements regarding taxation are based on advice received by the Fund regarding the law and practice in force in Hong Kong at the date of this document.

Hong Kong

The Fund/Sub-Funds

1. Profits Tax

As the Fund/Sub-Funds have been authorised, as a collective investment scheme under Section 104 of the Securities and Futures Ordinance, profits of the Fund/Sub-Funds are exempt from Hong Kong Profits Tax under Section 26A(1A)(a)(i) of the Inland Revenue Ordinance.

2. Stamp duty

Hong Kong Stamp Duty is ordinarily payable, inter alia, on the sale or purchase of Hong Kong stock. "Hong Kong stock" is defined in the Stamp Duty Ordinance ("SDO") as "stock" (as further defined in the SDO) the transfer of which is required to be registered in Hong Kong.

No Hong Kong Stamp Duty is payable by the Fund/Sub-Funds on an issue of Units, as well as on redemption of Units where the redemption is effected by extinguishing the Units.

The Unitholders

1. Profits Tax

Unitholders should not be subject to Hong Kong Profits Tax in respect of income distributions of the Fund/Sub-Funds or in respect of any capital gains arising on a sale, redemption or other disposal of Units in accordance with the practice of the Inland Revenue Department (the "IRD") (as at the date of this Explanatory Memorandum), except that Hong Kong Profits Tax (which is currently charged at the rate of 16.5% for corporations, and 15% for individuals or unincorporated business) may arise on any gains or profits sourced in Hong Kong made on the sale, redemption or other disposal of the Units where such transactions form part of a trade, profession or business carried on by a Unitholder in Hong Kong and such Units are not capital assets to the Unitholder. Unitholders should seek advice from their own professional advisers as to their particular tax position.

There is no withholding tax on dividends and interest in Hong Kong.

2. Stamp duty

No Hong Kong Stamp Duty is payable by a Unitholder in relation to an issue of Units or on the redemption of Units where the sale or transfer of the Units is effected by extinguishing the Units.

Other types of sales or purchases or transfers of the Units by the Unitholders should be liable to Hong Kong Stamp Duty at 0.1% (borne by each of the buyer and seller) on the higher of the consideration amount or market value.

China

By investing in China shares (including but not limited to China A-Shares and China B-Shares), onshore and offshore RMB denominated debt securities issued by PRC tax resident enterprises, (“China Securities”), a Sub-Fund may be subject to taxes imposed by the PRC.

Income (including interest income and capital gains) derived from the Sub-Fund’s investments in debt securities issued by non-PRC tax resident issuers outside China should not be subject to PRC taxes.

1. Corporate Income Tax (“CIT”)

If the Fund or a Sub-Fund is considered as a PRC tax resident enterprise, it will be subject to PRC CIT at 25% on its worldwide taxable income; if the Fund or Sub-Fund is considered as a non-PRC tax resident enterprise with an establishment or place of business (“PE”) in China, the profits and gains attributable to that PE would be subject to PRC CIT at 25%.

It is the intention of the Manager to manage and operate the affairs of the Manager, the Fund and each Sub-Fund such that they should not be treated as tax resident enterprises of the PRC or non-PRC tax resident enterprises with PE in China for PRC CIT purposes, although this cannot be guaranteed. As such, it is expected that the Fund or Sub-Fund would only be subject to CIT at a rate of 10% on a withholding basis (“WIT”) in China to the extent the Fund or Sub-Fund directly derives PRC sourced income in respect of its investments in China Securities.

(a) Dividends and Interest

Unless a specific exemption or reduction is available under current PRC tax laws and regulations or relevant tax treaties, non-PRC tax resident enterprises without PE in China are subject to PRC WIT, generally at a rate of 10%, to the extent it directly derives PRC sourced passive income (such as dividend income or interest income) arising from investment in China Securities. In that respect, interests, dividends and profit distributions from PRC tax resident enterprises received by the Sub-Fund is generally subject to PRC WIT at a rate of 10%, unless such WIT is subject to reduction or exemption in accordance with the laws and regulations or applicable tax treaty.

In respect of interest, under the PRC CIT Law and regulations, interest derived from government bonds issued by the in-charge Finance Bureau of the State Council and/or local government bonds approved by the State Council is exempt from PRC income tax. In addition, Caishui [2018] No.108 (“Notice 108”) deals with the PRC taxation rules in relation to foreign investors investing into PRC onshore bond market. Under Notice 108, CIT is temporarily exempted on bond interest income arising in the period from 7 November 2018 to 6 November 2021 derived by foreign investors without any taxable presence in the PRC.

Further, under the Arrangement between the PRC and the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to Taxes on Income (the “PRC-HK Arrangement”), the PRC WIT charged on interest received by Hong Kong resident holders of debt instruments issued by PRC tax resident enterprises will be 7% of the gross amount of the interest, if the Hong Kong tax resident holders are the beneficial owners of the interest under the PRC-HK Arrangement and other relevant conditions are satisfied, subject to the agreement of the PRC tax authorities. In practice, due to the practical difficulties in demonstrating that an investment fund is the beneficial owner of the interest received, such investment fund is generally not entitled to the reduced PRC WIT rate of 7%. As such, the prevailing rate of 10% should be applicable to the Sub-Fund.

In respect of dividends, pursuant to the PRC-HK Arrangement, the PRC WIT charged on dividends received by Hong Kong tax resident holders of shares issued by PRC tax resident enterprises will be 5% of the gross amount of the dividends, if the Hong Kong tax resident holders are the beneficial owners of the dividends, directly hold at least 25% of the equity of the company paying the dividends and meet other relevant treaty conditions. Due to the investment restriction, the relevant Sub-Fund will not hold more than 10% of any ordinary shares issued by any single issuer. In this connection, dividends derived from China A-Shares will not benefit from the reduced PRC WIT rate of 5% and the prevailing PRC WIT tax rate of 10% is applicable to the relevant Sub-Fund.

The Manager will make a WIT provision of 10% for the account of the relevant Sub-Fund on dividends and interest if the WIT is not withheld at source.

(b) Capital gains

For a foreign enterprise that is not a PRC tax resident enterprise and has no PE in China, a 10% PRC WIT would be imposed on the China-sourced capital gains derived by it, unless exempt or reduced under the laws and regulations or relevant tax treaty entered into by China.

i) Trading of A-Shares via Stock Connect

Caishui [2014] No.81 (“Notice 81”) deals with the PRC taxation rules in relation to Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect. Under Notice 81, CIT, business tax (replaced by value-added tax), and individual income tax are temporarily exempted on gains realized by Hong Kong market investors (including the relevant Sub-Fund) on the trading of A shares through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect. In addition, dividends will be subject to 10% PRC WIT and the company distributing the dividend has the withholding obligation.

Caishui [2016] No.127 (“Notice 127”) deals with the PRC taxation rules in relation to Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect. Under Notice 127, CIT, value-added tax and individual income tax are temporarily exempted on gains realised by Hong Kong market investors (including the relevant Sub-Fund) on the trading of A shares through Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect. In addition, dividends are subject to 10% PRC WIT and the company distributing the dividend has the withholding obligation. At the time when Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect was launched, business tax had already been fully replaced by value added tax.

ii) Trading of PRC B-shares

Under current PRC tax laws and regulations, there are no specific rules or regulations governing the taxation of a gain on disposal of B-shares. Hence, the tax treatment for investment in B-Shares is governed by the general tax provisions of the CIT Law. Under such general tax provisions, the Sub-Fund could be technically subject to 10% PRC WIT on the PRC sourced capital gains, unless exempt or reduced under relevant double tax treaties.

However, for B-Shares invested by the Sub-Fund directly, there may be practical difficulty for the PRC tax authorities to impose and collect PRC WIT on such capital gains. The 10% PRC WIT has not been strictly enforced by local tax bureau on capital gains realised by non-PRC tax resident enterprises from the trading of B-shares with sales and purchase effected through stock exchanges.

iii) Trading of onshore and offshore RMB denominated debt securities issued by PRC tax resident enterprise

Under current PRC tax law, there are no specific rules or regulations governing the taxation of gain on disposal of debt securities issued by PRC tax resident enterprises. Under the general tax provision, the Sub-Fund would potentially be subject to 10% PRC WIT on the PRC-sourced capital gains, unless exempt or reduced under relevant double tax treaties.

Based on the verbal interpretation of the State Tax Administration and the local PRC tax authorities, capital gains realised by foreign investors from investment in PRC debt securities issued by PRC tax resident enterprises should not be treated as PRC sourced income and thus should not be subject to PRC WIT. There are no specific written tax regulations issued by the PRC tax authorities to confirm that gains on disposal of PRC debt securities are non-PRC sourced and hence not subject to PRC WIT. However, in practice, the PRC tax authorities have not actively enforced the collection of PRC WIT in respect of gains derived by non-PRC tax resident enterprises from the trading of debt securities.

iv) Tax Provision

It should be noted that the existing tax laws, regulations and practices may be revised or amended in the future, with the possibility that such changes will be applied with retrospective effect. In order to meet the potential tax liability for capital gains, the Manager reserves the right to provide for PRC WIT on such gains or income and withhold the tax for the account of the Sub-Fund. However, having consulted a professional and independent tax adviser, pursuant to Notice No. 81 and the aforementioned practical enforcement of tax collection, the Manager has determined not to make PRC WIT provision for gross realised or unrealised capital gains derived by the Sub-Fund from trading of China Securities.

If the Sub-Fund is subject to tax in respect of which the Manager has not made any provision, investors should note that the net asset value of the Sub-Fund may be reduced, as the Sub-Fund will ultimately have to bear the full amount of tax liabilities. In this case, the additional tax liabilities will only impact Units in issue at the relevant time, and the then existing Unitholders and subsequent Unitholders will be disadvantaged as such Unitholders will bear, through the Sub-Fund, a disproportionately higher amount of tax liabilities as compared to that borne by persons who have already redeemed their Units in the Sub-Fund. On the other hand, if the actual tax liabilities are lower than the tax provision made (if any), Unitholders who have already redeemed their Units before the actual tax liabilities are determined will not be entitled or have any right to claim any part of such overprovision and as such may be disadvantaged.

2. Value Added Tax (“VAT”)

(a) Interest

Caishui [2016] No.36 (“Notice 36”) deals with the PRC taxation rules on VAT. Under Notice 36, interest on government bonds is exempt.

Notice 36 does not specifically exempt VAT on interest earned by non-financial institutions. However, Notice 108 temporarily exempts VAT on bond interest income arising in the period from 7 November 2018 to 6 November 2021 derived by foreign investors without any taxable presence in the PRC. In the event VAT exemption on bond interest derived by foreign investors under Notice 108 would not be extended by 6 November 2021, interest on corporate bonds in theory should be subject to 6% VAT.

(b) Dividends

Dividend income or profit distributions on equity investments derived from China are not included in the taxable scope of VAT.

(c) Capital gains

Notice 36 stipulates that gains derived by taxpayers from the trading of marketable securities would be subject to VAT at 6%. It also stipulates that VAT is temporarily exempt on capital gains derived by Hong Kong market investors (including the Sub-Fund) on the trading of A-Shares through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect.

For marketable securities other than those trading through a Qualified Foreign Institutional Investors or Stock Connect, Notice 36 provides that VAT at 6% should be levied on the difference between the selling and buying prices of those marketable securities. However, capital gains derived from trading of offshore marketable securities (e.g. China H-shares) in general are regarded as not subject to VAT as the purchase and disposal are often concluded and completed outside China.

Where VAT is applicable, there are also other surtaxes (which include Urban Construction and Maintenance Tax, Education Surcharge and Local Education Surcharge) that would amount to as high as a sum of surtaxes of 12% of 6% VAT payable (or an additional 0.72%).

3. Stamp duty

Stamp duty under PRC law generally applies to the execution and receipt of all taxable documents listed in the PRC's Provisional Rules on Stamp Duty. Stamp duty is levied on the execution or receipt in China of certain documents, including contracts for the sale of China A-Shares and China B-Shares traded on the PRC stock exchanges, at the rate of 0.1%. In the case of contracts for sale of China A-Shares and China B-Shares, such stamp duty is currently imposed on the seller but not on the purchaser.

4. General

It is possible that the current tax laws, regulations and practice in the PRC will change, including the possibility of taxes being applied retrospectively, and that such changes may result in higher taxation on PRC investments than currently contemplated.

Various tax reform policies have been implemented by the PRC government in recent years, and existing tax laws and regulations may be revised or amended in the future. There is a possibility that the current tax laws, regulations and practice in China will be changed with retrospective effect in the future and any such change may have an adverse effect on the asset value of the relevant Sub-Fund. Moreover, there is no assurance that tax incentives currently offered to foreign companies, if any, will not be abolished and the existing tax laws and regulations will not be revised or amended in the future. Any changes in tax policies may reduce the after-tax profits of the companies in China which a Sub-Fund invests in, thereby reducing the income from, and/or value of the Units. For further details relating to the associated risks, please refer to the risk factor headed "PRC tax risk with respect to capital gains" under the "Risk Factors" section.

Unitholders should seek independent professional advice on their positions with regard to the investment in any Sub-Fund.

General

Investors should consult their professional financial advisers on the consequences to them of acquiring, holding, realising, transferring or selling Units under the relevant laws of the jurisdictions to which they are subject, including the tax consequences and any exchange control requirements. These consequences, including the availability of, and the value of, tax relief to investors will vary with the law and practice of the investors' country of citizenship, residence, domicile or incorporation and their personal circumstances.

General information

Accounts and Financial Reports

The Fund's year end is 31 December in each year commencing 31 December 2003. Audited annual reports are made available to Unitholders by the Trustee within four months of the end of each financial year. Commencing 2004, the Trustee also provides half-yearly unaudited interim reports up to the last Dealing Day in June in each year to Unitholders within two months of the end of the period which they cover. The annual reports must be prepared in compliance with internationally recognized accounting standards and the interim reports must apply the same accounting policies and method of computation as are applied in the annual reports of the Fund. Such reports will be published in English and Chinese and contain a statement of the value of the net assets of each Sub-Fund and the investments comprising its portfolio.

Unitholders will be notified of where they can obtain the printed and electronic copies of the latest audited accounts or the half-yearly unaudited interim reports once they are available. Such notices will be sent to Unitholders as soon as practicable and in any event within four months of the end of each financial year as in the case of audited annual reports and within two months after 30 June in each year as in the case of half-yearly unaudited interim reports. Once issued, such reports will be available in softcopy from the website www.principal.com.hk¹ (investors should note that this website does not form part of the Explanatory Memorandum) and in hardcopy for inspection free of charge at anytime during normal business hours on any day (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays) at the office of the Manager.

Publication of Net Asset Value per Unit

The net asset value per unit for each Sub-Fund (rounded down to 4 decimal places) will be calculated and published on each Dealing Day free of charge on the website www.principal.com.hk¹. The prices will be expressed exclusive of any initial charge or redemption charge which may be payable on subscription or redemption.

Investment Restrictions

Each of these Sub-Funds is subject to the investment restrictions as set out in “Investment and Borrowing Restrictions” on page 16.

If any of the investment or borrowing restrictions applicable to a Sub-Fund are breached, the Manager shall as a priority objective take all steps necessary within a reasonable period of time to remedy the situation, having due regard to the interests of Unitholders. The Manager is not immediately required to sell applicable investments if any of the investment restrictions are exceeded as a result of changes in the value of a Sub-Fund’s investments, reconstructions or amalgamations, payments out of the assets of the Sub-Fund or redemptions of Units but for so long as such limits are exceeded, the Manager shall not acquire any further investments which would result in such limit being further breached.

Removal and Retirement of the Trustee and the Manager

(a) The Trustee

Subject to the prior approval of the MPF Authority and the SFC, the Trustee may retire voluntarily by giving not less than 90 days written notice to the Unitholders if adequate arrangements have been made for a new trustee (approved by the MPF Authority and the SFC) to assume the responsibility for administration of the Fund and for the Trustee’s interest in the Fund to be transferred to the new trustee.

(b) The Manager

Subject to the prior approval of the SFC, the Trustee may remove the Manager by giving three months’ prior written notice to the Manager if:

- (i) for good and sufficient reason, the Trustee states in writing that a change of the Manager is desirable in the interest of the Unitholders; or
- (ii) the Unitholders representing at least 50% in value of the Units outstanding delivered to the Trustee a written request to dismiss the Manager.

The Manager is also subject to removal forthwith upon written notice from the Trustee if the Manager commences liquidation or has gone into receivership or has entered into any scheme of arrangement or compromise with its creditors.

Furthermore, if the authorisation of the Manager to act as investment manager of the Fund is withdrawn by the SFC, the Manager’s appointment under the Fund shall be terminated as at the date on which the SFC’s withdrawal becomes effective.

In the event that the Manager is removed, the Trustee will appoint a new manager which is approved by the MPF Authority and the SFC.

Apart from the above, the Manager may also retire voluntarily in favour of another qualified company approved by the MPF Authority and the SFC.

Termination of the Fund

The Fund shall continue for a period of 80 years from the date of the Trust Deed or until it is terminated in one of the ways set out below.

1. Subject to the prior approval of the MPF Authority and the SFC, the Trustee may terminate the Fund if:
 - (a) the Manager goes into liquidation or if a receiver is appointed over any of the Manager’s assets and not discharged within 60 days; or
 - (b) in the opinion of the Trustee, the Manager is incapable of performing its duties properly or has done anything which brings the Fund into disrepute or is harmful to the interests of the Unitholders;
 - (c) the Fund ceases to be authorised or otherwise officially approved pursuant to the Securities and Futures Ordinance or the MPFS Ordinance of Hong Kong or any law is passed which renders it illegal or in the opinion of the Trustee impracticable or inadvisable to continue the Fund; or ¹ The website has not been reviewed by the SFC.

- (d) the Manager ceases to manage the Fund and within a period of 30 days thereafter no other qualified corporation has been appointed by the Trustee as a successor manager.
2. Subject to the prior approval of the MPF Authority and the SFC, the Manager may terminate the Fund if:

 - (b) the Fund ceases to be authorised or otherwise officially approved pursuant to the Securities and Futures Ordinance and the MPFS Ordinance of Hong Kong or if any law is passed which renders it illegal or in the opinion of the Manager impracticable or inadvisable to continue the Fund.

Notice will be given to Unitholders if the Fund is terminated under the above circumstances. Such notice will be submitted to the SFC for prior approval and will contain the reasons for the termination, alternatives available to Unitholders and the expected costs involved.

Termination of a Sub-Fund

Subject to the prior approval of the MPF Authority and the SFC,

1. the Manager may terminate any Sub-Fund if:

Notice of termination will be given to Unitholders of the relevant Sub-Fund. Such notice will be submitted to the SFC for prior approval.

Trust Deed

The Fund was established under Hong Kong law by a trust deed dated 7 May 2003 made between the Manager and the Trustee, as amended by the deeds of variation dated 22 November 2007, 2 January 2015 and 27 July 2017, and supplemented by the Deed of Termination Relating to the Principal Long Term Accumulation Fund under Principal Life Style Fund dated 4 July 2008, the Deed of Termination Relating to the Principal U.S. Dollar Savings Fund Under Principal Life Style Fund dated 7 December 2012 and the Amended and Restated Trust Deed dated 1 January 2020. All holders of Units are entitled to the benefit of, are bound by and are deemed to have notice of the provisions of the Trust Deed.

The Trust Deed contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee and the Manager and their relief from liability in certain circumstances. Unitholders and intending applicants are advised to consult the terms of the Trust Deed. Although every effort have been taken to ensure the accuracy of the facts and the matters set out in this Explanatory Memorandum, in case of any conflict the terms of the Trust Deed shall prevail.

Modification of Trust Deed

Subject to the prior approval of the MPF Authority and the SFC (where necessary), the Trustee and the Manager may agree to modify the Trust Deed by supplemental deed. However, in respect of all classes of Units of the Fund available to retail investors (including without limitation to Retail Class Units, R2 Class Units and R6 Class Units), unless the Trustee certifies in writing that in its opinion such modification (i) is not materially prejudicial to the interests of Unitholders, does not operate to release to any material extent the Trustee, the Manager or any other person from any responsibility to the Unitholders and (with the exception of the costs of preparing and executing the relevant supplemental deed) does not increase the costs and charges payable out of the assets of the Fund or (ii) is necessary or desirable in order to comply with any fiscal, statutory, regulatory or official requirement or (iii) is made to correct a manifest error, no modifications involving any material changes shall be made without the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the Unitholders affected or the approval of the SFC.

Meetings of Unitholders

The Trust Deed provides for meetings of Unitholders to be convened by the Trustee or the Manager upon at least 21 days' notice. Notices of meetings of Unitholders will be posted to Unitholders.

Proxies may be appointed. The quorum at Unitholders' meetings is Unitholders present in person or by proxy holding not less than 10% (or, in relation to a resolution proposed as an extraordinary resolution, 25%) of the Units in issue. If a quorum is not present, the meeting will be adjourned for not less than 15 days. Separate notice of any adjourned meeting will be given, and at an adjourned meeting Unitholders whatever their number or the number of Units held by them will form a quorum.

An extraordinary resolution is required under the Trust Deed for certain purposes and is a resolution proposed as such and passed by a majority of 75% of the total number of votes cast.

The Trust Deed contains provisions for the holding of separate meetings of Unitholders holding different classes of Units where only the interests of Unitholders of a particular class are affected.

The Trust Deed provides that at any meeting of Unitholders, on a show of hands, every Unitholder who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a partnership or corporation) is present by an authorised representative shall have one vote and, on a poll, every Unitholder who is present as aforesaid or by proxy shall have one vote for every Unit of which he is the holder.

Transfer of Units

Subject as provided below, Units may be transferred by an instrument in writing in a form approved by the Trustee, signed by (or, in the case of a body corporate, signed on behalf of or sealed by) the transferor and the transferee. The transferor will be deemed to remain the holder of the Units transferred until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Unitholders in respect of such Units.

Each instrument of transfer must relate to a single class of Units only. No Units may be transferred if, as a result, either the transferor or the transferee would hold Units having a value less than the minimum holding of the relevant class.

Conflicts of Interest

The Manager, sub-delegates of the Manager, the Trustee and the custodian may from time to time act as trustee, administrator, transfer agent, manager, custodian, representative or otherwise as may be required from time to time in relation to, or be otherwise involved in or with, other funds and clients which have similar investment objectives to those of the Sub-Funds. It is, therefore, possible that any of them may, in the course of business, have potential conflicts of interest with the Fund. The Manager will take all reasonable steps to identify, prevent, manage and monitor any actual or potential conflicts of interest including conducting all transactions in good faith at arm's length and in the best interests of the Fund on normal commercial terms. If conflicts arise, each will at all times, have regard in such event to its obligations to the Fund and will endeavour to ensure that such conflicts are resolved fairly and taking into account investors' interests. In any event, the Manager shall ensure that all investment opportunities will be fairly allocated.

Each will, at all times, have regard in such event to its obligations to the Fund and will endeavour to ensure that such conflicts are resolved fairly and taking into account investors' interests.

The Manager may also act as the investment manager of other funds whose investment objectives, investment approach and investment restrictions are similar to those of the Sub-Funds. The Manager or any of its connected persons may invest in, directly or indirectly, or manage or advise other investment funds or accounts which invest in assets which may also be purchased or sold by the Sub-Funds. Neither the Manager nor its connected persons is under any obligation to offer investment opportunities of which any of them become aware to the Fund or to account to the Fund in respect of (or share with the Fund or to inform the Fund of) any such transactions or any benefit received by any of them from any such transaction, but will allocate such opportunities on an equitable basis between the Fund and other clients.

Where the Manager invests the Sub-Funds in shares or units of a collective investment scheme managed by the Manager or any of its connected persons, the Manager must waive any preliminary or initial charge which it is entitled to charge for its own account in relation to the acquisition of shares or units and there must be no increase in the overall total of annual management fees (or other costs and charges payable to the Manager or any connected person of the Manager) borne by the relevant Sub-Funds.

The Manager reserves the right for itself and its connected persons to co-invest on its own or for other funds and/or other clients with any Sub-Fund. Further, the Manager and its connected persons may hold and deal in Units of any Sub-Fund or in investments held by any Sub-Fund either for their own account or for the account of their clients. Trade allocations are performed, where appropriate, to ensure best execution and fair treatment of all clients (including the relevant Sub-Fund) at all times.

The Manager may enter into trades for the account of the Fund with the accounts of other clients of the Manager or its affiliates ("cross trades"). Such cross trades will only be undertaken where the sale and purchase decisions are in the best interests of both clients and fall within the investment objective, restrictions and policies of both clients, the cross trades are executed on arm's length terms at current market value, the reasons for such cross trades are documented prior to execution, and such activities are disclosed to both clients. Cross trades may also be entered into between house accounts (i.e. account owned by the Manager or any of its connected persons over which it can exercise control and influence) and client accounts in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Subject to the restrictions and requirements applicable from time to time, the Manager, sub-delegates of the Manager or any of their respective connected persons may deal with any Sub-Fund as principal provided that dealings are effected on best available terms negotiated and executed on an arm's length basis and in the best interests of the Unitholders. Any transactions between a Sub-Fund and the Manager, sub-delegates of the Manager or any of their connected persons as principal may only be made with the prior written consent of the Trustee. All such transactions shall be disclosed in the Fund's annual report.

In effecting transactions for the account of any Sub-Fund with brokers or dealers connected to the Manager, subdelegates of the Manager or their connected persons, the Manager shall ensure that it complies with the following requirements:

- (a) such transactions should be on arm's length terms;
- (b) the Manager must use due care in the selection of brokers or dealers and ensure that they are suitably qualified in the circumstances;
- (c) transaction execution must be consistent with applicable best execution standards;
- (d) the fee or commission paid to any such broker or dealer in respect of a transaction must not be greater than that which is payable at the prevailing market rate for a transaction of that size and nature;
- (e) the Manager must monitor such transactions to ensure compliance with its obligations; and
- (f) the nature of such transactions and the total commissions and other quantifiable benefits received by such broker or dealer shall be disclosed in the annual report of the Fund.

The services of the Trustee provided to the Fund are not deemed to be exclusive and the Trustee shall be free to render similar services to others so long as its services hereunder are not impaired thereby and to retain for its own use and benefit all appropriate fees and benefits. The Trustee shall not be deemed to be affected with notice of or to be under any duty to disclose to the Fund any fact or information which comes to the notice of the Trustee in the course of the Trustee rendering similar services to other parties or in the course of its business in any other capacity, otherwise than in the course of carrying out its duties under the Trust Deed or as required by any applicable laws and regulations for the time being in force.

If cash forming part of a Fund's assets is deposited with the Trustee, the custodian, the Manager, the sub-delegates of the Manager or with any connected persons (being an institution licensed to accept deposits), such cash deposit shall be maintained in a manner that is in the best interests of the Unitholders, having regard to the prevailing rate for deposits of similar type, size and term, negotiated at arm's length in accordance with ordinary and normal course of business.

Risk Management Process

To identify, monitor, measure and manage the risks associated with the Fund taking into account the nature, scale and complexity of the business of the Manager and the investment objective and strategy of each Sub-Fund. The Manager has formalized an internal control policy and employed a comprehensive risk management process in line with the above criteria and considerations. Such policy/process includes investment compliance monitoring, on-going monitoring of (i) the Fund's investment and asset allocation; (ii) the performance of the Fund; and (iii) the qualification of the service providers appointed.

Liquidity Risk Management

The Manager has established a liquidity risk management policy with the aim of enabling it to identify, monitor, manage and mitigate the liquidity risk of the Sub-Funds and seeking to ensure that the liquidity profile of the investments of the Sub-Funds will facilitate compliance with the Sub-Funds' obligation to meet investors' redemption requests and the fair treatment of investors.

The Manager's liquidity risk management policy takes account of the investment strategy, the dealing frequency, the expected redemption patterns and the liquidity profile of the underlying assets of the Sub-Funds and the overall liquidity of the market, as well as the ability to enforce redemption limitations of the Sub-Funds.

Before investments are made in the underlying securities of a Sub-Fund, the Manager will consider the size of the issue or the issuer of the relevant underlying securities and the proportion of the intended investment. The liquidity risk management policy involves monitoring the profile of investments held by the Sub-Funds and analysing the liquidity in the underlying securities on an on-going basis with the aim to ensure that such investments are appropriate to the redemption policy as stated under the section titled "Redemption of Units", and will facilitate compliance with the Sub-Funds' obligation to meet redemption requests. The liquidity risk management policy also provides for periodic stress testing on the liquidity risk of the Sub-Funds.

The Manager's liquidity risk management function is independent from the investment portfolio management function and is responsible for monitoring of the Sub-Funds' liquidity risk in accordance with the Manager's liquidity risk management policy. The liquidity risk management function is overseen by senior management who are responsible for liquidity risk management.

In performing its liquidity risk management function, the Manager may utilise one or more liquidity risk management tools on an on-going basis, including, but not limited to:-

- the Manager may, with the approval of the Trustee, limit the total net asset value or total number of Units of any Sub-Fund redeemed on any Dealing Day (whether by sale to the Manager or by cancellation by the Trustee) to Units representing 10% of the total net asset value or the total number of Units of such Sub-Fund in issue, respectively (subject to the restrictions and actual practice set out in the section titled “Restrictions on Redemption”); and
- the Manager may, in certain circumstances with the consent of the Unitholders concerned, effect a redemption payment to the redeeming Unitholders in specie or in kind rather than in cash (for further details, see the section titled “Payment of Redemption Proceeds by Distribution in Specie”).

Anti-Money Laundering Regulations

As part of the Trustee’s and the Manager’s responsibility for the prevention of money laundering, they may require a detailed verification of an investor’s identity and the source of the payment of application monies. Depending on the circumstances of each application, a detailed verification might not be required where:

- (i) the applicant makes the payment from an account held in the applicant’s name at a recognized financial institution; or
- (ii) the application is made through a recognised intermediary.

These exceptions will only apply if the financial institution or intermediary referred to above is within a country recognised as having sufficient anti-money laundering regulations.

The Trustee and the Manager reserve the right to request such information as is necessary to verify the identity of an applicant and the source of the payment. In the event of delay or failure by the applicant to produce any information required for verification purposes, the Trustee and/or the Manager may refuse to accept the application and the application monies relating thereto.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA”)

The Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act (the “Hire Act”) was signed into US law in March 2010. It includes provisions generally known as Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA”). FATCA imposes a 30% withholding tax on certain types of income from US sources, including dividends and interest from securities of US issuers with effect from 1 July 2014. The objective of FATCA is to impose obligations on non-US financial institutions to identify and appropriately report on the assets held by US taxpayers outside the United States as a safeguard against US tax evasion.

On 13 November 2014, Hong Kong entered into an intergovernmental agreement (“IGA”) with the United States to implement FATCA for all Hong Kong based financial institutions adopting “Model 2” IGA arrangements. Hong Kong financial institutions, including the Fund and the Sub-Funds are required to report to the US tax authorities (the “IRS”) the details of assets held by US taxpayers with those financial institutions and payments made to nonparticipating foreign financial institutions (“NPFFI”) during 2015 and 2016. Pursuant to the IGA, the Fund is classified as a deemed-compliant foreign financial institution as it has elected to be sponsored by the Manager, Principal Asset Management Company (Asia) Limited. The Manager has registered with the IRS as a sponsoring entity and been assigned the Global Intermediary Identification Number (“GIIN”) E2QA10.00000.SP.344 in that capacity and has agreed to carry out the FATCA responsibilities of the Fund, including registration of the Sub-Funds with the IRS which has assigned a GIIN to each Sub-Fund. Under the terms of the IGA, the Fund as a deemed-compliant foreign financial institution is not subject to any US withholding taxes, unless it is considered to be in substantial non-compliance with the relevant requirements under FATCA or the IGA.

The Manager, on behalf of the Fund, is required to obtain mandatory evidence from each new Unitholder as to whether it is a US person or a NPFFI within the meaning of IGA. The Manager is also required to identify any existing Unitholder as a US person or a NPFFI within the meaning of the IGA based on the records the Fund holds.

Further, the Manager on behalf of the Fund is required to disclose such information as may be required under the IGA and FATCA to the IRS in relation to any Unitholder who is considered to have become a US person or a NPFPI within the meaning of the IGA.

Investors should consult their own tax advisers regarding any potential obligations and implications that the IGA or FATCA, may impose on them and the Fund.

In addition, as the Fund does not pay US source income to Unitholders, the Fund is not required to withhold any US taxes from distribution or redemption payments unless Hong Kong agrees before any prescribed deadline with the IRS that such withholding should be applied.

Investors are advised to refer to the sections titled “Risks associated with Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act” for risks associated with the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act.

Automatic exchange of financial information

Financial institutions in Hong Kong and many other jurisdictions are required to identify account holders who are reportable foreign tax residents under the laws, regulations and international agreements for the implementation of automatic exchange of financial account information (“AEOI”), and report the information of account holders and controlling persons of certain entity account holders (including but not limited to their names, addresses, dates of birth, places of birth/incorporation, jurisdiction(s) of tax residence, tax identification number(s) in the relevant jurisdiction(s) and account information (including but not limited to their account balance, income, and payments to the account holders) (collectively, the “Reportable Information”) to the local tax authority where the financial institutions operate. The local tax authority, in respect of a reportable foreign tax resident, will provide the Reportable Information of the reportable foreign tax resident to the tax authority of the country of tax residence of the reportable foreign tax resident on a regular, annual basis.

The Fund is a Hong Kong financial institution for AEOI purposes. As required under AEOI of Hong Kong, the Fund will use for the purposes of AEOI the Reportable Information of any individual or entity, in the capacity as a Unitholder, that is considered under AEOI to be an “account holder” or “controlling person” of an “account holder” (where applicable). The Reportable Information may be transmitted to the IRD for transfer to the tax authority of another jurisdiction.

The Fund may, to the extent not prohibited by applicable law including AEOI, engage, employ or authorise any individual or entity (including but not limited to third-party service providers, the Trustee’s or the Manager’s affiliates, subsidiaries, associated entities, and any of their branches and offices) (each, for purposes of this section, an “authorised person”) to assist the Fund with the fulfilment of its obligations under AEOI, and to act on the Fund’s behalf in relation to its obligations under AEOI. The Fund and its authorised persons may share with each other any information of any “account holder” and “controlling person” of an “account holder” (where applicable) of the Fund.

The Fund and/or any of its authorised person(s) may require any “account holder” under AEOI to provide a valid self-certification form and such other information (including the Reportable Information and any documentary evidence) which the Fund and/or any of its authorised person(s) may require from time to time for the implementation of AEOI (collectively, the “Required Information”). In addition, where the “account holder” is an entity, the Fund and/or its authorised person(s) may require the Required Information of its “controlling person(s)”.

Where required by AEOI and to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, the Fund will not accept any applicant or make any payment to any “account holder” (in the capacity of a Unitholder) before receiving the Required Information. “Account holders” and “controlling persons” must update the Fund and/or any of its authorised person(s) about any changes in the information they have previously provided to the Fund and/or any of its authorised person(s). If the Fund and/or any of its authorised person(s) do not receive the Required Information in respect of an “account holder” or a “controlling person”, the Fund and/or any of its authorised person(s) may be required to report such person based on the information they have.

Unitholders and any other “account holders” and “controlling persons” should consult their own tax advisers regarding the possible implications of AEOI on their participation and holding interests in the Fund and the information that may be required to be provided and disclosed to the Fund and/or any of its authorised person(s), and where applicable, to the IRD and other tax authorities. The application of the AEOI rules and the information that may be required to be reported and disclosed are subject to change. Please see the IRD website (https://www.ird.gov.hk/eng/tax/dta_aei.htm) for more information about AEOI in Hong Kong. Any discussion of tax considerations herein is not intended or written to be tax advice to any person and is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by any person for the purpose of avoiding any domestic or foreign tax penalties that may be imposed on such person.
