What is this product?

The Sub-Fund is a fund constituted in the form of a unit trust. It is domiciled in Ireland and its home regulator is the Central Bank of Ireland.

Objectives and Investment StrategyObjective

The objective of the Sub-Fund is to seek to achieve capital growth through investment in global smaller companies.

Investment Strategy

The Sub-Fund will invest at least 80% of its net asset value (“NAV”) in transferable equity and equity-related securities of a diversified range of companies throughout the globe, normally with a market capitalisation on purchase, of no greater than US$5 billion or that of the largest company in the MSCI ACWI Small Cap Index. These securities will primarily be common stocks and other securities with equity characteristics, including but not limited to preferred stocks, warrants (only held where an existing holding is subject to an issuance of warrants and, in aggregate, normally not more than 5% of the Sub-Fund’s NAV) and rights (which are issued by a company to allow holders to subscribe for additional securities issued by that company), as well as depository receipts (such as American Depository Receipts (ADRs) and Global Depository Receipts (GDRs)). The securities acquired by the Sub-Fund (other than permitted unlisted investments), will be listed/traded on securities exchanges or regulated markets in accordance with the relevant Central Bank requirements. On occasion, in markets where local restrictions exist which hinder direct ownership of equities, the Sub-Fund may access these equities indirectly through purchasing up to 5% of its NAV in participation notes. Any exposure to China shall be through H-shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and other available depository receipts. The Sub-Fund will not seek to be leveraged in any way through the use of any of the above instruments.

Up to 10% of the NAV of the Sub-Fund may be invested in UCITS eligible collective investment schemes, including exchange traded funds, the constituents of which may comprise the instruments and markets described above and therefore is an alternative means through which the Sub-Fund may gain exposure to these types of instruments and markets.

Subject to complying with the investment restrictions of the Sub-Fund, the Sub-Fund may hold up to 10% of its NAV in ancillary liquid assets such as bank deposits.

The instruments the Sub-Fund may invest in may be denominated in any currency.

The Sub-Fund may use financial derivative instruments (“FDI”) for investment purposes and for the purposes of efficient portfolio management. The FDI that may be entered into for this purpose may include foreign exchange forwards, foreign exchange swaps and non-deliverable foreign exchange forwards & swaps.

Use of Derivatives / Investment in Derivatives

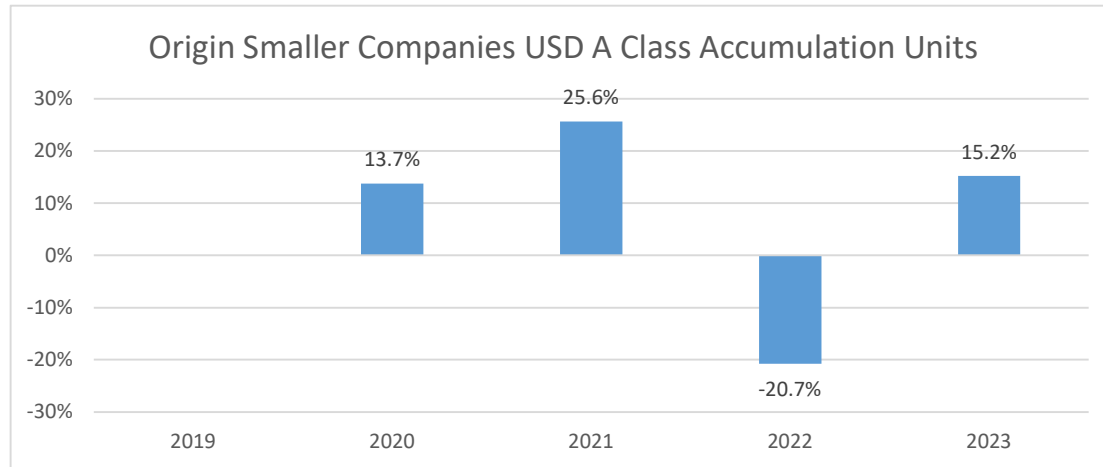

The Sub-Fund's net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of its NAV.

Investment Mix as at 31 March 2024

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Summary Prospectus for details including the risk factors.

- 1. General investment risk - The Sub-Fund's investment portfolio may fall in value due to any of the key risk factors below and therefore your investment in the Sub-Fund may suffer losses. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal.
- 2. Currency risk - Underlying investments of the Sub-Fund may be denominated in currencies other than the base currency of the Sub-Fund. Also, a class of units may be designated in a currency other than the base currency of the Sub-Fund. The net asset value of the Sub-Fund may be affected unfavorably by fluctuations in the exchange rates between these currencies and the base currency and by changes in exchange rate controls.
- 3. Equity market risk - The Sub-Fund's investment in equity securities is subject to general market risks, whose value may fluctuate due to various factors, such as changes in investment sentiment, political and economic conditions and issuer-specific factors.
- 4. Risk associated with small-capitalisation / mid-capitalisation companies – The stock of small-capitalisation / mid-capitalisation companies may have lower liquidity and their prices are more volatile to adverse economic developments than those of larger capitalisation companies in general.
- 5. Emerging market risk –
 - Investments in emerging markets - The Sub-Fund invests in emerging markets which may involve increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in more developed markets, such as liquidity risks, currency risks/control, political and economic uncertainties, legal and taxation risks, settlement risks, custody risk and the likelihood of a high degree of volatility.
 - Risk associated with high volatility of the equity market in emerging markets - High market volatility and potential settlement difficulties in the markets may also result in significant fluctuations in the prices of the securities traded on such markets and thereby may adversely affect the value of the Sub-Fund.
 - Risk associated with regulatory/exchanges requirements/policies of the equity market in emerging markets - Securities exchanges in emerging markets typically have the right to suspend or limit trading in any security traded on the relevant exchange. The government or the regulators may also implement policies that may affect the financial markets. All these may have a negative impact on the Sub-Fund.
- 6. Risks associated with investment in FDI - Risks associated with FDI include counterparty/credit risk, liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the-counter transaction risk. The leverage element/component of an FDI can result in a loss significantly greater than the amount invested in the FDI by the Sub-Fund. Exposure to FDI may lead to a high risk of significant loss by the Sub-Fund.

How has the Sub-Fund performed?

Past performance information is not indicative of future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.

The computation basis of the performance is based on the calendar year end, NAV-To-NAV, with dividend reinvested.

These figures show by how much the A Class Accumulation Units increased or decreased in value during the calendar year being shown. Performance data has been calculated in USD including ongoing charges and excluding subscription fee and redemption fee you might have to pay.

Where no past performance is shown there was insufficient data available in that year to provide performance.

Sub-Fund launch date: 11 April 2013

A Class Accumulation Units launch date: 15 July 2019

The Manager views A Class Accumulation Units, being a retail unit class, as the most representative unit class.

Is there any guarantee?

This Sub-Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the full amount of the money you invest, and negative returns may be generated under certain circumstances.

What are the fees and charges?
